tall and quiet he is individual individualized
more intensely by distance and dignity.
his eyes must be sharper his figures exacter
his handwriting blacker
the man more the man
because his household,
the christians of los angeles,
focuses its earsight on him.
and out of the focusing thousands alemany is the chosen people.
his consuming concern built a bridge between us -
the genesis of our construction program.
these dollars with their grimy histories might have cast gold statues,
made gold friends.
instead, his wisdom rains them down into our weedy alemany earth.
the foundations, concrete as our familyhood,
shall spring up bricks and education and tomorrow.

this is the sort of exchange they know well
their pearls and rich woods, all sweat and struggle, for our daisy, a page in recuerdos.
words rallying to reach
from individual (the 1700th power - that's us)
to individual (the powerful four of them).

father weber, truly a father,
sister rose bernard
and sister jeanne anne,
small and strong, with their calm-sea eyes,
and father waldie, angles and brilliance.

it is only they know the endless years of minutes
the dollar signs, the question marks,
it is they don't sleep over construction and call the man about paper towels and burn with concern for each of us.
can our thank-you weigh anything balanced against the selves they are giving?
like the sun they work
constant, silent, indispensable, radiating energy, making things grow.
and can we thank the sun?

Linda,
Well here it goes your really a bitchen kid and quite the joke, but have a bitchen personality & thats what counts. At least we won't see each other in Summer school again thank God. So Good Luck. See Ya Cindy.

Linda,
Its been great knowing you this year. Its just been great I hope we can stay the best of friends
Jim Malak

All is fair in love and war.

Linda,
your really a sweet girl, and a bright smile always. I hope have the best of luck always. I won't forget you. Say a laughing, rushing, smiling, worrying, slamming, talking, listening, reading, eating, watching, searching, arguing, thinking.... all sixteen hundred of you, the students of Alemany High School.

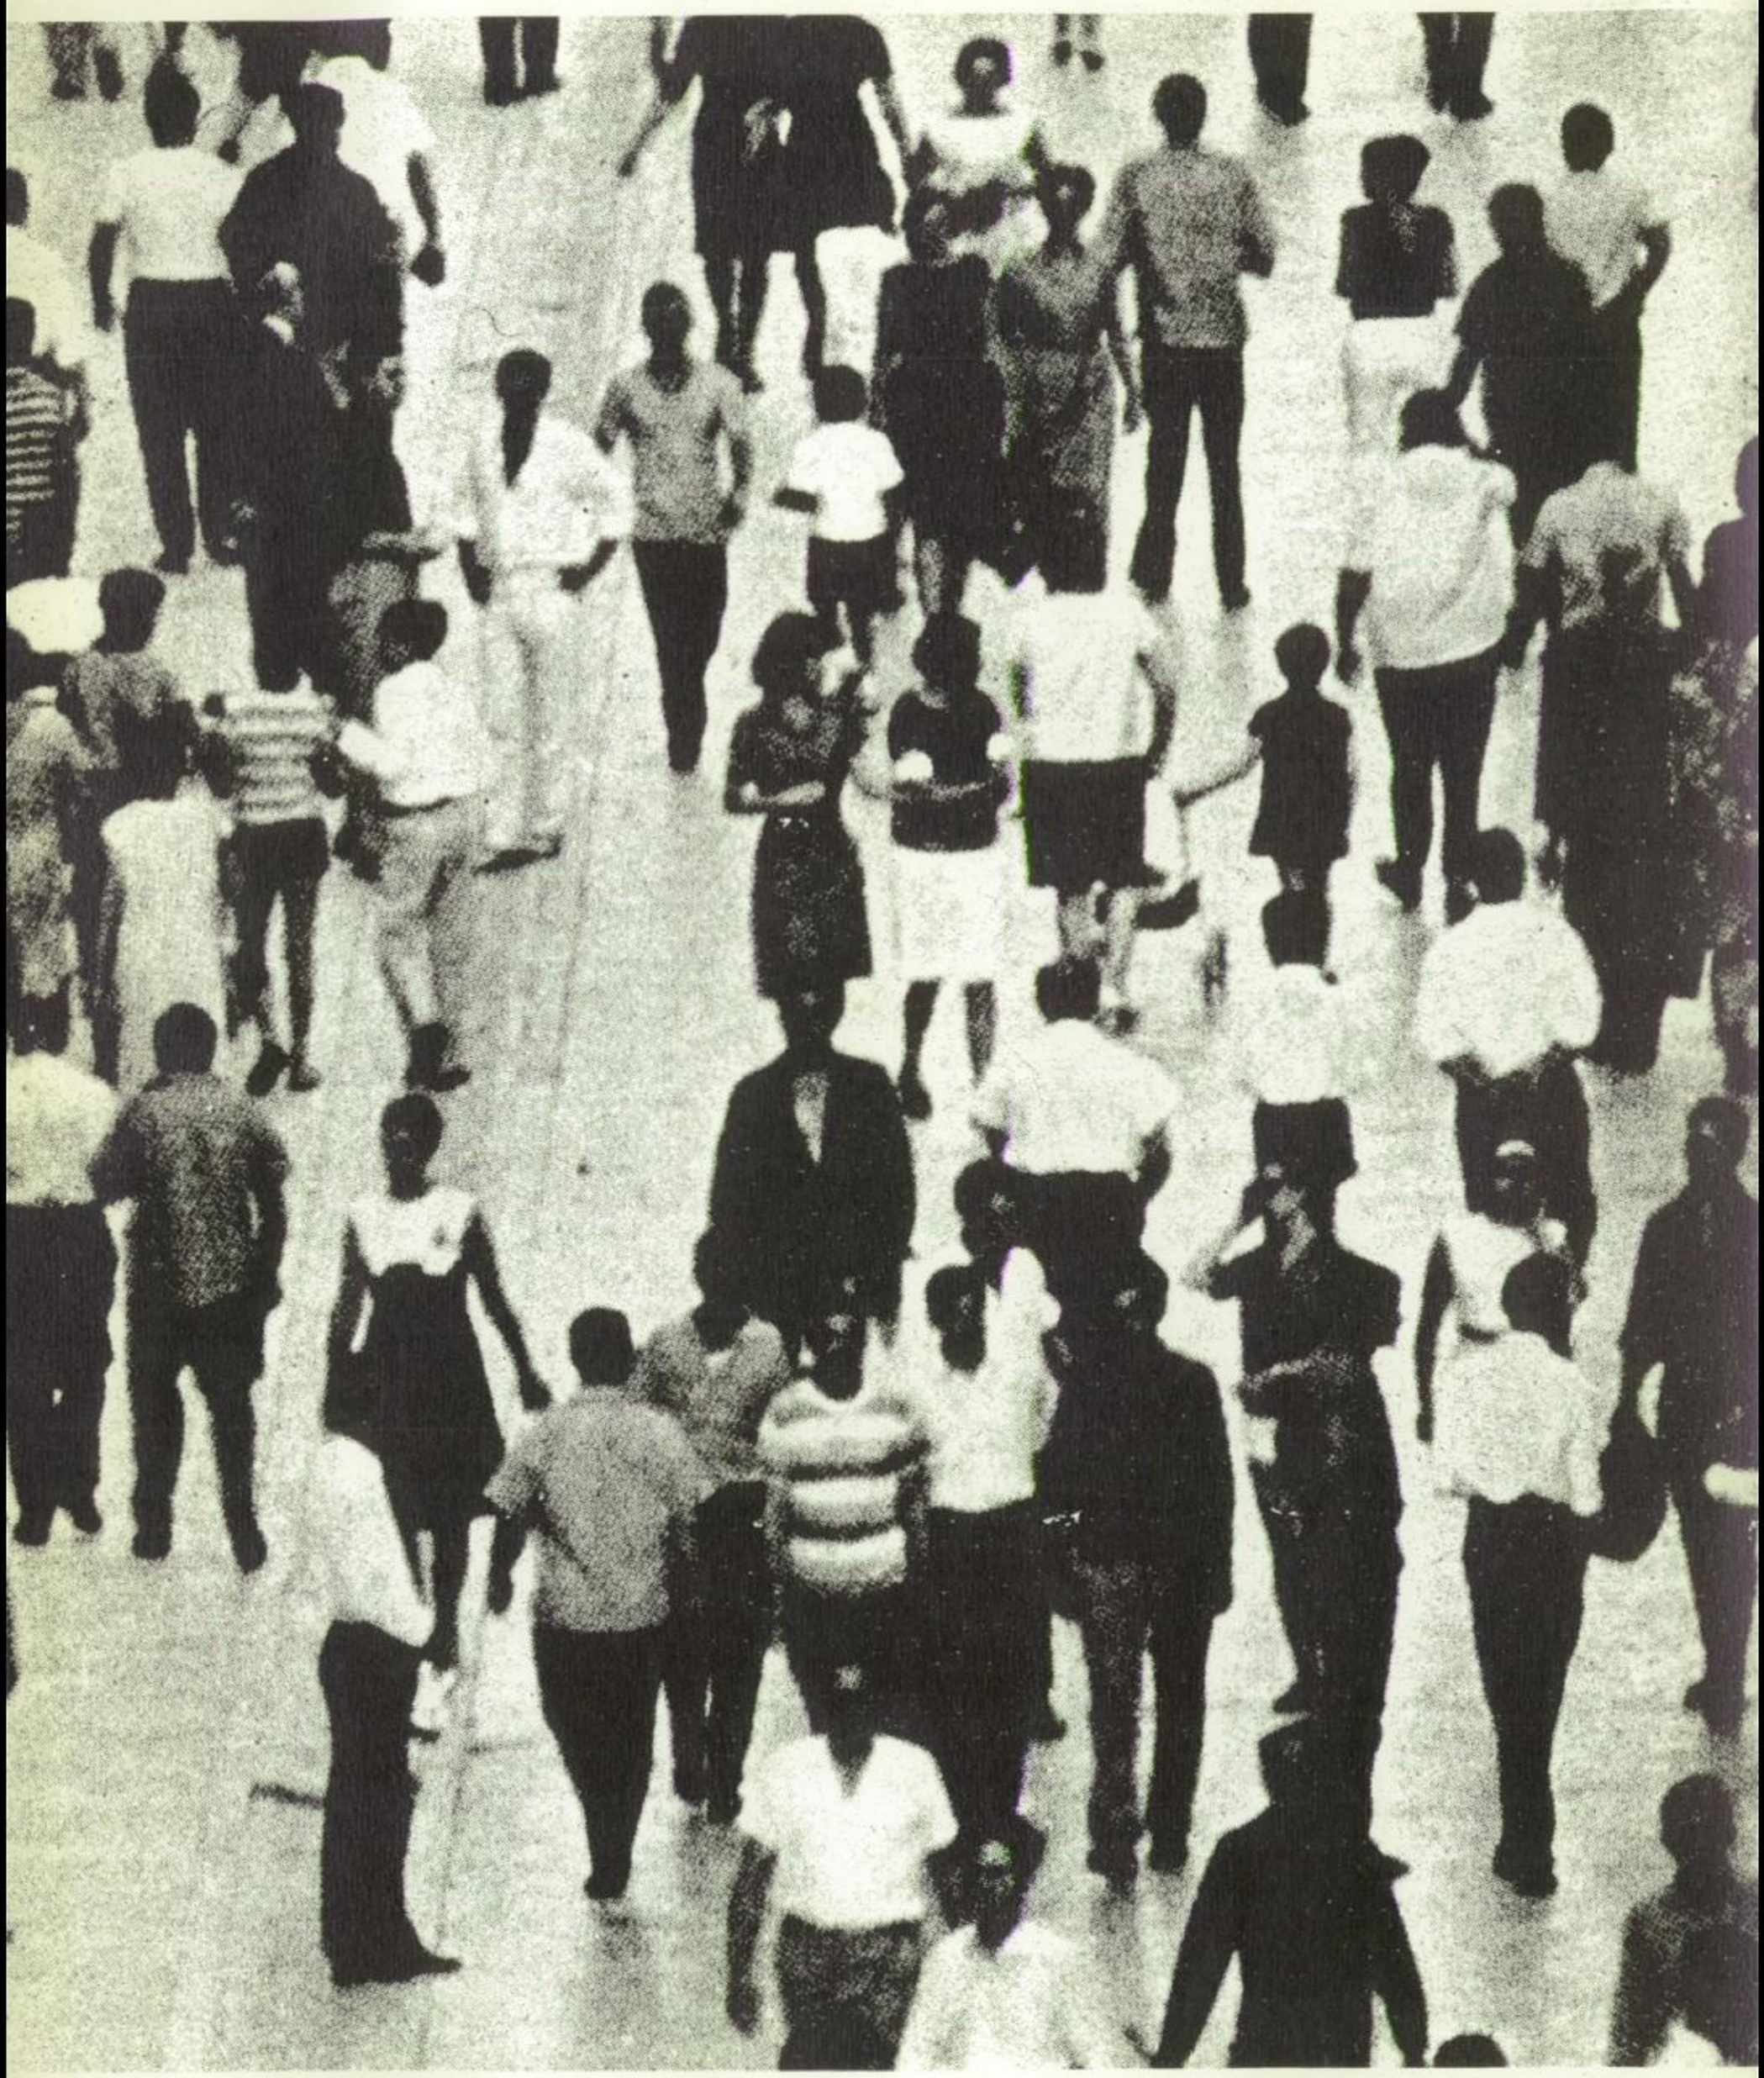
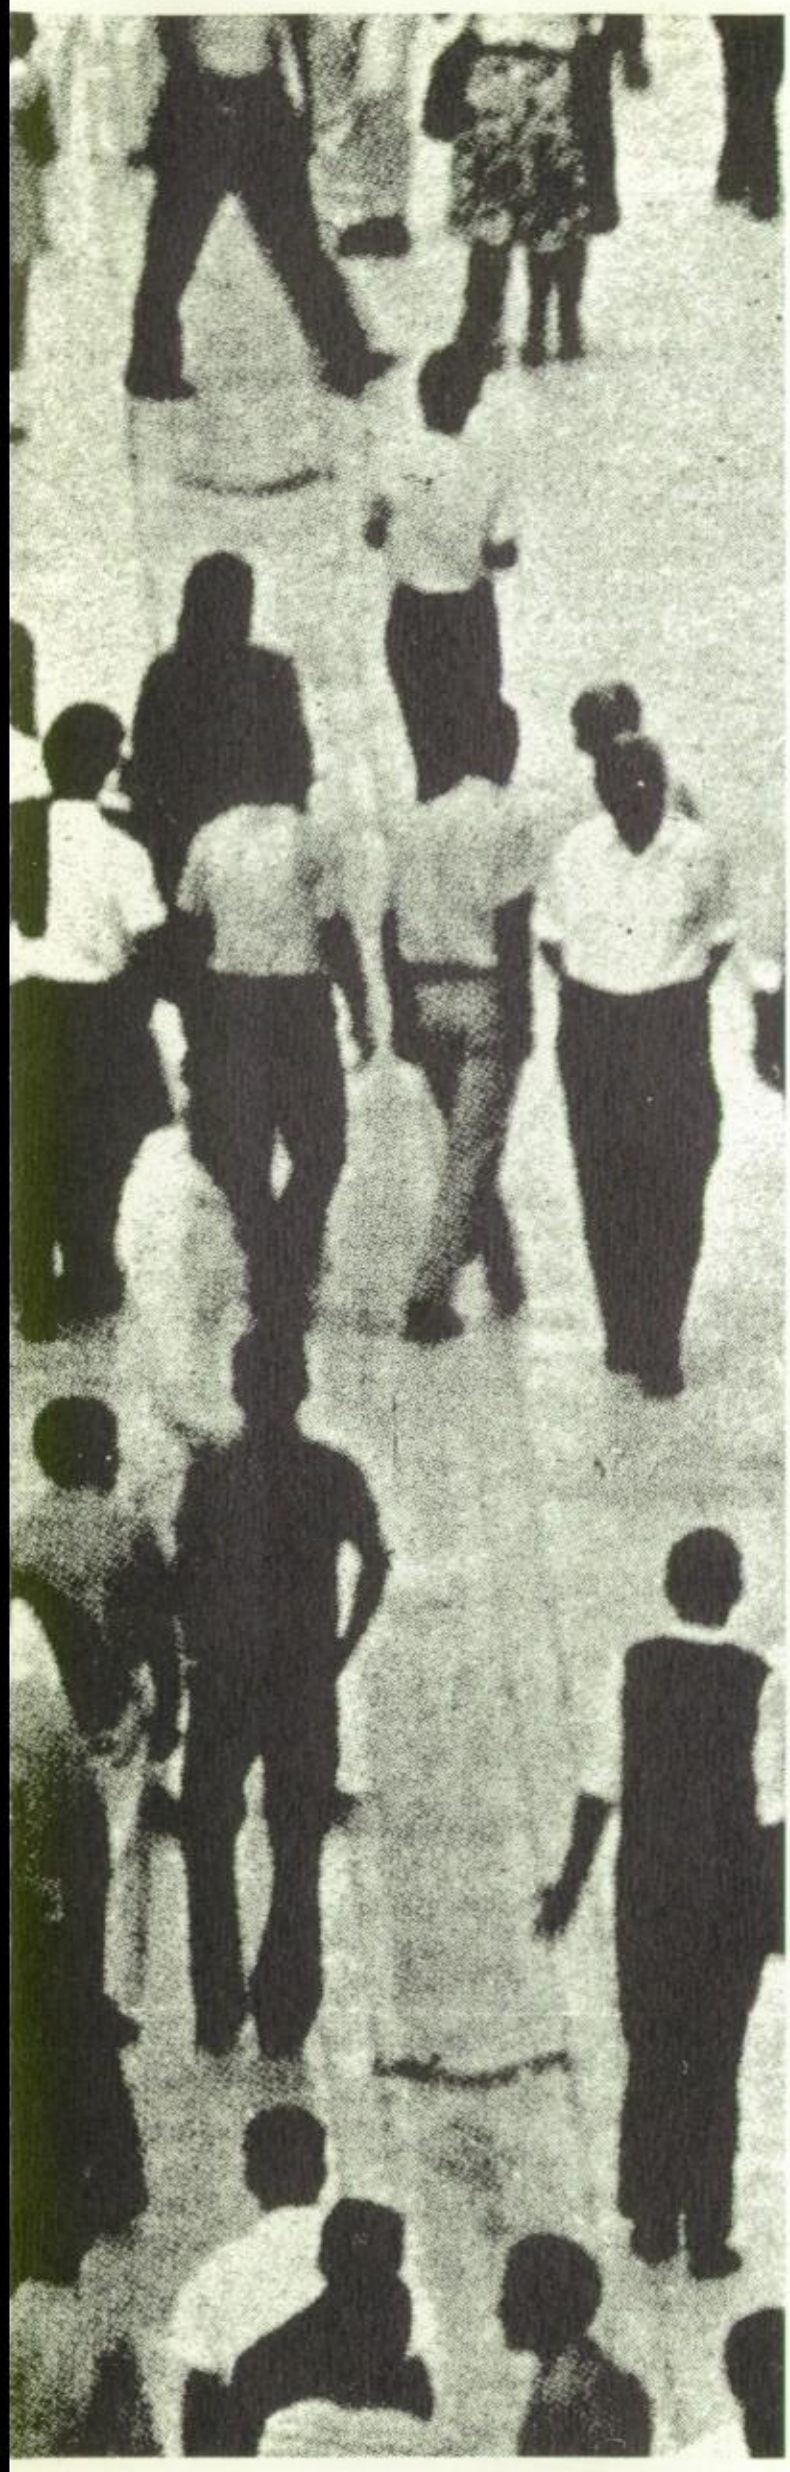
You are Alemany collectively, because you are individually added up. All are one together, but apart you are yourselves. Many of the things you do are the same things that other teenagers do, but your actions and thoughts are done in your own way, not in anybody else's.

You are a being that has in every part of you, a spirit that is only yours. You were made an individual and you have a life before you that is all yours. Uniqueness is your possession and can never be taken from you unless you willingly surrender it.

The dedication of Recuerdos '67 is to you, each Alemanian, with the fervent hope that you accept and live your own uniqueness and dignity.



Dear Linda, Look on Page 183
DEAR LINDA, LOOK



john donne once said "no man is an island." rather, mankind is a collection, as many islands make a mass of land, a solid form. but mankind is not smooth or even, like the land it is varied because each island has its own valleys - and mountains - and shoreline - and weeds. each island is rich in itself, holding its oneness as its own stamp, and so it has worth simply because it is itself, is individual. so each man is a part of a living mass called mankind, but man is also always an island unto himself. for himself, his dignity, we recognize man as the theme of recuerdos '67.

Dear Linda,
Alright, Cummings, you've been avoiding me because you don't want me to sign your Annual. Well I got a hold of it, so now I'm gonna give it to you. Well anyway, I just want to say - thanks for being my stupid friend. You are cute and nice - for goodness sake stay that way !! Hope to see ya over the summer and next year.

these seniors

Richard Bruno Abram

Rich, making ILAP enjoyable with his unusual sense of humor, was active in the NHS all four years and CSF the first three. The Senior retreat and the '66 Crespi game are his favorite memories.

Lawrence R. Abrams

Intelligent and sports-minded Larry stayed permanently on the honor roll through high school, being a part of CSF and ILAP. He was there at all the games and will always remember Dr. Parsa's Biology class.

Thomas Edward Adams

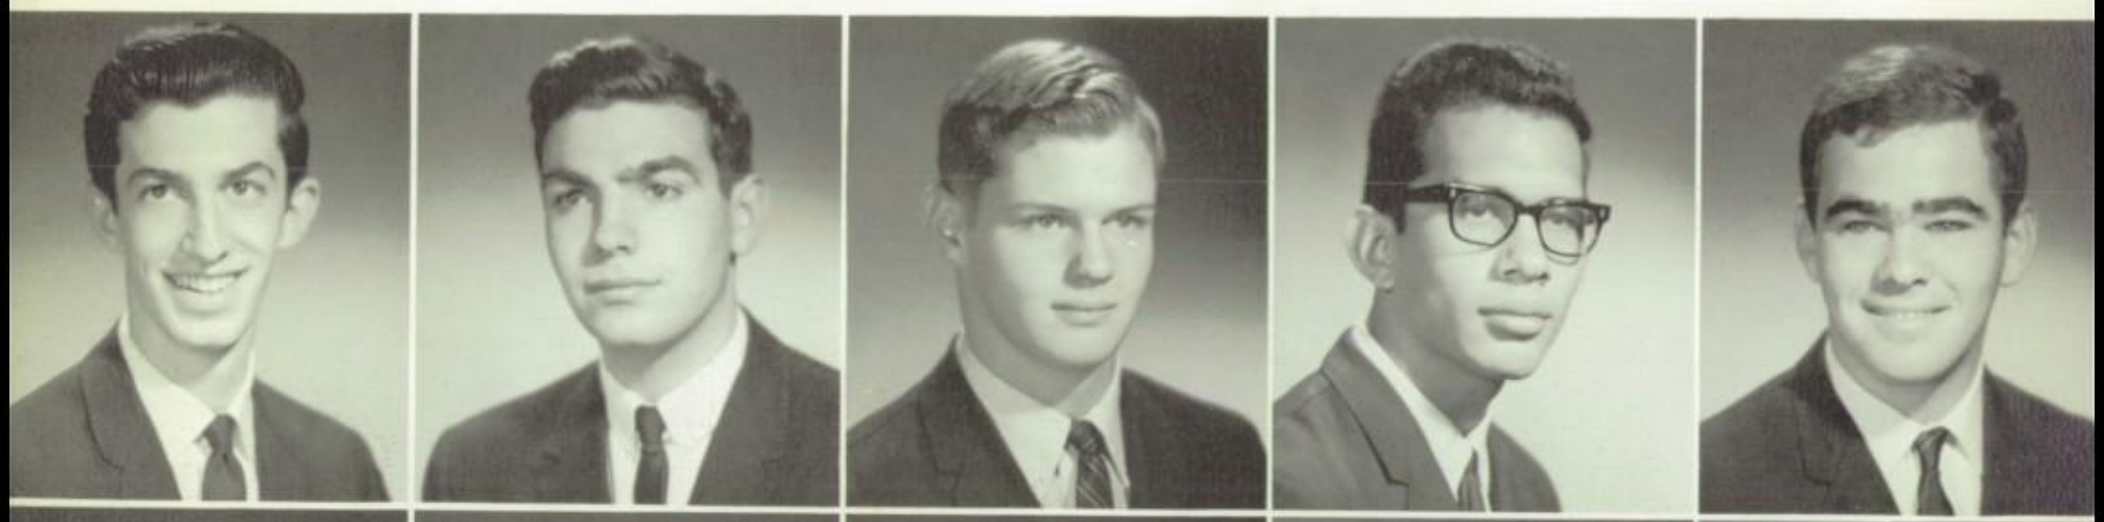
As a Letterman, Big Tom played football all four years and was a member of the wrestling squad. Manresa and those wild room-to-room raids were truly unforgettable.

Jacob Francis Aguirre

Varied activities such as Homecoming '66, the Sophomore picnic, playing baseball and attending the Halloween dance were all part of talkative Jake's Alemany life.

Michael Albert

Active in water polo for four years, Mike was a part of retreats, things on the bus and hopping curbs to his first water polo practice.



Cheryl Sue Auchterlonie

"Hello Chicken" says "Ralph", who has been a Junior class cheerleader, the chairman of the Peru drive and a Senior homeroom president in her active, spirited career at Alemany. You can be sure that we all like "Sherry Vanilla ice-cream."

Rosalinda B. Ballesteros

Peppy Rosie is friendly like the girl next door, and was an ambitious actress in "Anne Frank."

Donna Marie Balthazor

"I kid you not," she's really friendly and full of pranks, not forgetting the car wash. Active and mysterious, she's no "Frump" at all.

Mary Beth Balthazor

Saying "I'm Beth, that's Donna" is "Stinky," who specializes in being an eccentric artist while going to the Junior Prom and running for Homecoming Queen.

Maria Theresa Barba

Lively Terri dreams of the '67 Senior Prom while "Trying to Remember" those beautiful Junior Prom decorations. Special memories are initiating Keo on Freshmen Initiation Day '66 and doing work(?) in Foods and Clothing.

are not your seniors

Eugene Fraire Aldava

Gene is the talented drummer in the Alemany band who serves on the Boys' Student Council as parliamentarian. Along with a notable list of awards and achievements, he especially remembers Dr. Parsa and Wrightwood.

James L. Allison

Interested in art, philosophy and psychology, Jim experienced Mr. Gardina's English class and cumulous smog coming in through the heater of a certain '57 Ford.

Rebecca Alice Amabisca

Only extroverted Becky could have arranged meeting Sister Rose Bernard the way she did, so it was only natural that the tops of bottles kept popping off that day in Biology. But Becky is sensitive too, because President Kennedy's death is still remembered by her.

John Francis Ambrose

A talkative football player is "Java" who is known for his spirit at games and stereo tapes. He himself can't forget all the retreats.

Robert Joseph Aubrey

Though coming to Alemany in his Junior year, "Kid Sox" has already made a name for himself, especially in varsity football and basketball.

Patricia Ann Bazar

Doing a lot of hard work as Junior class president was "Big B," who can't forget the Junior Prom and being a Homecoming Princess. Always on the go—that's Patty!

Chan Joseph Beauvais

"Chadwick" reigns as a full-fledged member of "Alemany's Socialite Society", along with being on Varsity cross-country and track teams. Taking up a lot of his time, were "Flower Drum Song" and the powerful "Theophile."

Theresa Ann Becker

Latin co-consul Terri remembers being in the crazy ILAP choir and working as a Biology lab assistant. Her favorite greeting is, "Do you know what Joe did?"

Robert Faustino Belmonte

Bob, whose life at Alemany was one of watching, listening and being a part of retreats, football games and initiations, is a quiet guy with many friends.

Beverly Ann Benefiel

As member of Stagecraft, bubbly Bev worked behind the scenes in "South Pacific", especially enjoying those wild intermissions. Her other happy memories include the Junior Prom, Brad-Grad night, retreat and Mary's Day.

Mary Kathleen Benjamin

Benjie remembers decorating for the Junior Prom, a certain algebra class with Mrs. Meyer and getting up early to dissect an eye in Biology. Her greatest problem is finding someone who has a dime she can borrow.

Elizabeth Ann Benson

Trying to Remember the ILAP bus trips and the Bill Cosby imitations is artistic Lizzie who keeps insisting that she was born in Santa Monica, not Boston. Unforgettable too, were the ILAP music programs and tripping over fence wire.

Bonnie Ruth Berg

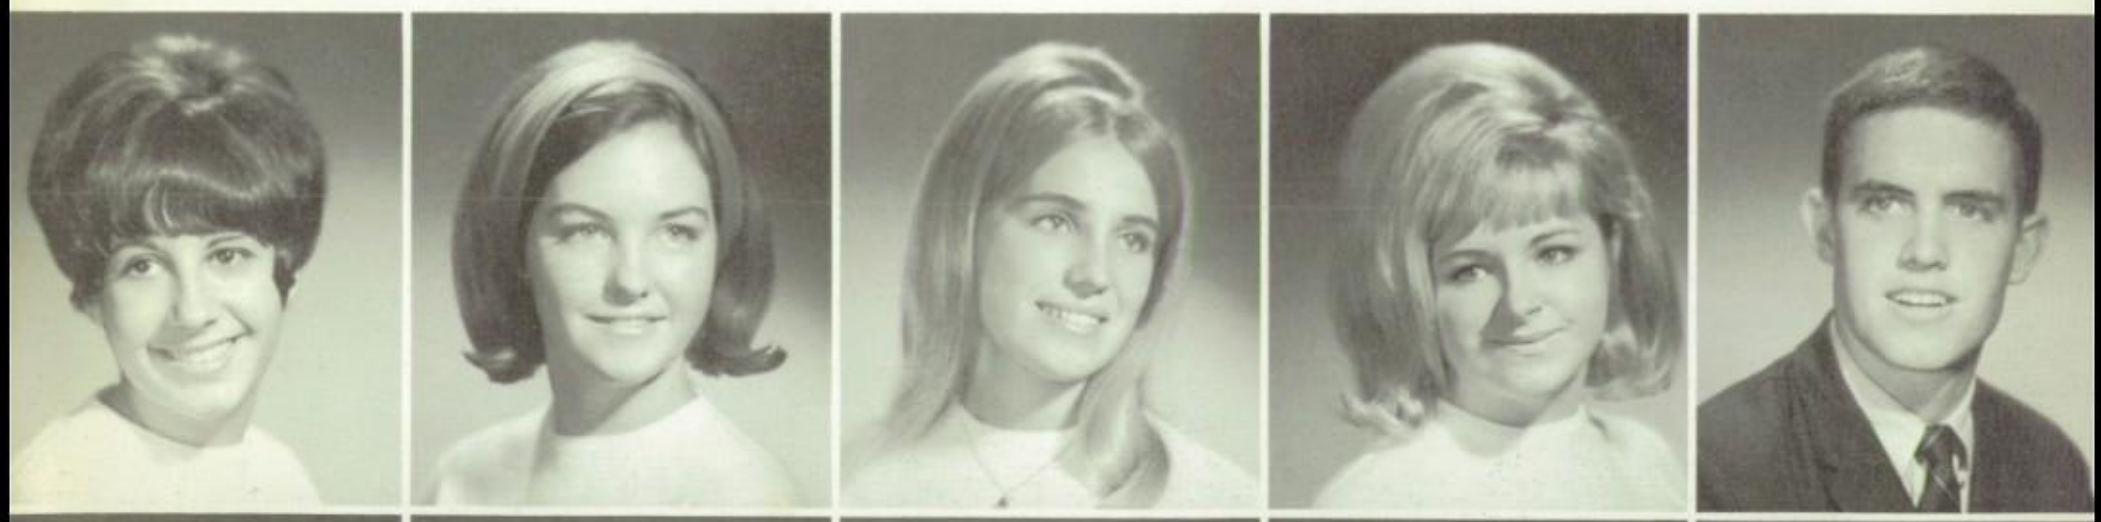
Bonnie is the fast-talking Senior class head cheerleader who remembers painting the car for the Crespi '66 game and "Following the Fold," as well as decorating the stage for the Junior Prom. She shared in the Homecoming '66 festivities as a Princess.

Carol Blauvelt

Lively, chattering Carol believes in bending a sympathetic ear to anyone who needs it. Working hard on projects has brought the memories of Mary's Day, Dad-Daughter Night and Homecoming '66 to her.

David Theodore Bolduc

"Ducky" has played Varsity football and basketball while filling his senior year with Student Council and the class presidency. Unforgettable for him was Manresa and the Crespi and St. Francis games '66, while forgettable were his jokes.



Patricia Ann Brennan

Sincere and good-humored Pat works driving thirteen girls to cook with the Santa Rosa project along with enjoying Father Chris' religion lectures.

Thomas R. Brennan

A good and real friend, Tom remembers belonging to the Confraternity, and serving in the Chem lab as an assistant. He's part of that group of students who locked Mr. Cousins out of class.

Robert John Brochu

A good swimmer on the Varsity team and a member of the Lettermen's Club was Bob, who know "How to Succeed" with the Soph honor roll.

Michael John Brooks

Mike, a two-year Band member, can't forget his first retreat and Mr. Smith's study hall.

Sheila Marlene Brown

"I've got to go find Honeybear" is Marnie speaking. Whether it be the Junior car wash or behind scenes in Stagecraft, there's never a dull moment when she's around. Was or wasn't she a spy for the Lakeview Terrace crowd?

most popular

pam tylock

dave bolduc

Vicki Irene Borquez

Vicki, the trustworthy, talented winner of the '65 Thanksgiving Dance contest, is a good natured hairdresser who's unpredictable when she hears the Gems at a dance.

Bruce Douglas Boullie

A likeable guy who's in water polo and wrestling is "Boo". He especially remembers getting fifty dollars worth of chocolate stolen and being in Mr. Bennett's history class.

Ronald Gene Brauer

Ron has a singular ability to chop people even though he's quiet and sporty. His special memories are buying his Mercedes Benz and meeting M. K.

Barbara Marie Breeden

There's the unique Barbara "Anyway" Breeden; a scientist in her own right who's off to bigger things, in time to come. Now she's a part of ILAP and Chem demonstrations, remembering ILAP bus trips and "Try to Remember."

Cynthia Claire Bryson

Level-headed Cindy, known as the girl in the smiling braces, will always remember her first day at Alemany, Class Day '66 and throwing a girl in the showers.

Peter Michael Buffo

Pete is an active member of Glee Club and Confraternity. Though he knows the grind of study, teachers and tests, he's always ready with a joke.

William Randall Buitron

Always griping, "Waves are better during school, especially if you don't get caught," Bill is a Varsity swimming and water polo team member. All in favor of "Psychotic Reaction," he was the frosh veep and outstanding lineman.

Katherine Marie Burke

Cute Kimmy is a spirited, lively Varsity songleader saying, "I'm so jazzed" (about the water bucket at the Amat game.) A good listener and advisor, she's a wonderful friend to Alemany and everyone.

they are the sons and daughters of life's longing for itself

Irene C. Burns

"Ireneebus" looked like a blond Buster Brown when she took her trips to Hansen and Missouri, though she says, "Oh, I did not!" Dear to her are December 26, 1966 and "Jeri-bear."

Geraldine Busuttil

Gerri has the gift of gab and a friendly smile for everyone. What's this about room two and the first day of school? She was probably saying "Oh Linda" or "tsk, tsk, tsk."

Richard Allen Cain

Rick is a letterman on varsity swimming. He remembers football and basketball games, of course, but those "great dances" in Frosh year?!

Richard Camarena

"Fugi", a Letterman, has been swimming for two years in the water polo and swim teams. Out of the water, retreats, history classes and initiations are his best memories.

Patricia Carland

Spirit has played a big part in Patty's career at Alemany. Active on class teams, she has belonged to the Service Club, Pep Club (all four years) and GAA. Other unforgettable activities were her Senior year and football games.

Eileen Cecilia Chapman

Little in size, but big in impact is the original Leenie. She thinks deeply, cares strongly and lives fully. Her unforgettable events are the unforgettable events of others: Sibby getting S.B. presidency, Margi being elected a Homecoming Princess and our team beating St. Francis in '63.

Stephen Joseph Cicero

Steve, the "Turtle," is a true brain in Honors, ILAP and the Science Club. With sincerity and a rare sense of humor as his trademarks, he found honest religious involvement on the Senior retreat.

Emily Ciongoli

September 23, 1966, the Junior Prom and the drill team are understanding Emily's best memories of high school. Though she's a really great friend, "Joe" of course, is her favorite word.

Margaret Mary Comerford

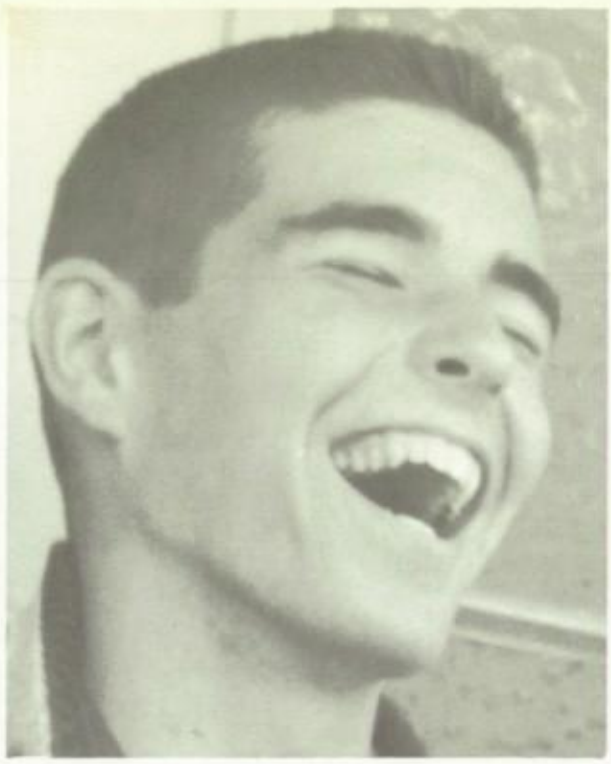
Margie is a person who can laugh at Dads with Beatle hair cuts and leaving Father Tona's office a total mess. A part of the First Aid class and the fashion show, she is also known for her warmth and friendliness.

Mary Ann Conlin

Could you ever forget Mrs. Meyers' Geometry class and Mary's "I don't understand" or her "But Mrs. Culpepper!" in Shorthand? Neither can she forget the Junior Prom and Sr. Carmen Mary's Spanish classes.

Eric Carlson

Many varied activities have made Eric the many-faceted person he is. His Chess and Science Club memberships, along with his speech as Aristotle in ILAP have been balanced by action in the water polo and swim team.



Deborah Ann Carr

"Mouse," our Homecoming Queen and Soph Penny Queen, is an unmatchable friend. She makes a great Varsity songleader who always asks for "hot tea" and "Bruce"!

James Dennis Carter

"Chaemps," our active Confraternity President and Student Council member, has a contagious smile. In his two meaningful years at Alemany, he recalls especially the Junior Prom.

Paula Marie Ceglinsky

"I'm happy," "Cig" always says, or "I'll kill 'em!" Babysitting with Mary Ann and watching "all the wild games" are only a couple of places where you can find her.

Bruce Thomas Cekosh

"Nose," a Varsity Letterman is both an Outstanding Back and friend. Favorite memories for him are the Crespi game and Debbie!

Leonard John Corpening

"Pinki," active in many sports, was co-captain of the football team and an officer in the Lettermen's Club. He is known both as "Lightbulb" and the lover of the school.

Robert Christopher Cosindas

Bob added a lot of laughs and fun to the Glee Club and his other school activities. He enjoyed retreats and membership on the Honor Roll all four years.

Louise Marie Courchesne

Loui, always on the phone saying, "Guess what happened!", remembers decorating cars for the Crespi game and bumping into poles during little sisters' initiations. She's also an R.P.S. member.

Donna Katherine Cox

Donna, a friendly "Dear Abby," recalls freezing during drill team practice and scraping up money to win a day off. There's also the Junior Prom and "Les" and "only —more days!"

Catherine Craven

Good-natured Cathy is interested in people and the beach at Santa Barbara. She enjoys the privilege of having blue and green eyes and an annual romance with a certain guy.

most talented

peggie molinelli

don gunther

Louis D'Alessandro

POW-WOW photog, Lou, was active in Frosh football, Glee Club and Trophy Runs. He remembers the Junior Prom and that great beach party.

Janice Damiani

"Teeny-tiny baby-bit", says Jan—a Righteous Brothers lover. A warm humorous friend, she remembers all of Senior year, especially the Homecoming and Crespi games.

Lorraine Davet

Friendly, lighthearted Lorraine adds humor to any situation. She also added her talents to winning the spirit trophy and to the Senior Tribute by being a cactus.

Nancy Depp

As a band member, "S. B. Pinky" recalls being a Letterman, selling toothbrushes, the Oakland trip, and Mr. D's "relax" sign at concerts. This petite bombshell often adds her "Forget it—you're weird" to the conversation.

Carlyn De Prez

Unassuming Car was a painter for "South Pacific" and an usher at graduation. She is a concerned friend who eats blue candy frosting on her birthday cake.

Eileen Dorothy Dilley

"Try to Remember", Eileen! "Did the boys from Lancaster really get their camper T.P.'ed?" Recall also the Junior Prom, a certain sock hop and being a drill team member.

Daniel Joseph De Broeck

Dan is a crazy "silver"(?) "supermouth", who remembers the retreat at Manresa and Coach Moore's Physical Science class.

Fred De La Cerda

"Oso", the vice-president of the Letterman's Club, was very active on the athletic file, He remembers beating Crespi and a short-lived career in "South Pacific."

Catherine L. Dellecese

Cathy is a funny, laughing friend who brightened dull classes and Drill Team by being her dependable self. She especially enjoyed Homecoming '66.

Camille Marie DeLucio

Bouncey, spirited "Cam" made the folders for the Soph Christmas Project. She adds an interested "Oh, really?" to her work in Pep Club and "South Pacific."

Donna Jean Depew

"Belladonna" with the Halloween wig is fascinated by the business world and Hawaii. She rings gongs as a Chinaman and attends freezing football games.

Claudia Ann Di Mascio

A member of the Alemany Apostolate, Claudia is a rare person with a great honesty and concern for people. She has the blessing of being able to freely give of herself.

Joseph Felice Dinielli

Though "Pizza" enjoyed Physics, he's trying his best to forget Geometry. An active member of Confraternity, he remembers Band, basketball and the Soph retreat.

Jennifer Dingwerth

Easy-going Jenny is always willing to help, whether it's with the Chapel Laundry, the ILAP Christmas program or just somebody's problems. Her life is one of gay confusion.

DON'T LINDA, FALL ON THE 4RACK AGAIN HUH!? I LOVE PAT

Mary Ann DiPasquale

"Oops, catch that letter!" you'll often hear from Mary as she busies herself in one of a million tasks. Truly sincere and dependable, she made a deserving Girl of the Month, with her never ending, "I'll do it for you!"

Jamie Ann DiVentura

Jamie is a tremendously witty and fun person. Among her many talents are getting lost at away games, riding bikes with Anne, and leading cheers for our class.

best dressers

pam tylock

len corpening

Roberta Ann Djerf

The "Jerk", a SWEDISH, nutty worker, inspires a certain baseball player by being herself. Herself means class cheerleader and Junior Girl of the Month, who washes cars and says "Hi ya Pork!"

William Patrick Dorgan

ILAP, retreat, being in the band for two years and FEA for one, were all some of the experiences that Bill enjoyed during his Alemany years.

Jeannette Theresa Doria

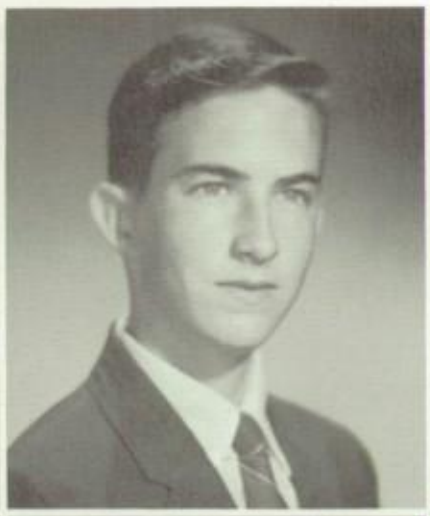
Fun-loving Jan remembers taking the bus for three years and falling down at USC. It wasn't all bad though because there are always memories of Mr. McKnight's class and painting the "staff" car.

Donald John Dow

"Snooks" is a pole-vaulting member of ILAP who enjoys field trips and "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying."

Mary Ann Doyle

"Doylie Ann" is a crazy, kooky flirt who moves vivaciously saying "Boy was he mad!" "I care" about Homecoming '65, Crespi, weekend baybsitting and TTR because they are all great memories.



Andrea Eischeid

Friendly "Andy" can't forget Sister Ann Elizabeth's Biology class, bowling, the Senior Glen benches and Halloween. Mistakes in the business room and flat forces are worth remembering too.

Yolanda Esparza

Understanding, easy-to-talk-to boy watcher "Yo-Yo" believes in having a great time, be it at the Senior Prom, in drill team or learning the latest dances.

Rose Ann Estrada

"Rhodie" won't forget being in Glee Club, the Backwards Dance, "Doc" Connell's typing class and especially winning the thousand dollars. "Oh, I'm sure" she won't change her silly sense of fun and wonderful spirit.

Gary William Eurich

Varsity football and track made "Scrounge" a Letterman in his junior and senior years.

Sherry Falat

Remember "Shers" as the sun in "Buttons and Bows"? She's still playing "dumb dumb" and saying "Can I ask a question, Fred?!"

Dennis William Duff

Who did you say was the nameless assistant of the Green Hornet? It could only be that varsity water polo member who stomps at lunch, cheats on tests (what's this?) and remembers incidents at the Crespi game.

Kim Patrick Duffy

Sports have been big for "Dumbo" during the last four years. He's been in wrestling, football (even though he did have a broken foot this season) and track, not to forget the silver medal at Oxnard.

Linda Ann Duncan

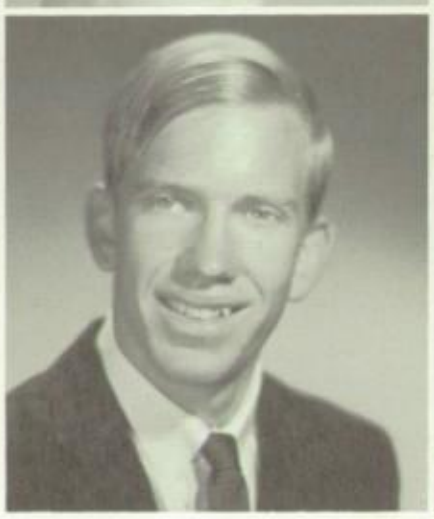
"Grindl" was student body veep this year, handling complaint slips and saying "Does my hair look O.K.?" Vibrantly living Lin is indeed loved just as much as she loves.

Barbara Jean Dyemartin

Size three Barb, though shy and quiet, is funny and honest and believes in asking questions to find the answers. Memories are made of fun at the '65 Homecoming and '66 Backwards Dance.

Gary Michael Edemann

"Midget" had a great senior year being a homeroom representative, a member of ILAP, a retreat-goer, and fan at football and basketball games.



Patrick S. Farris

N.Y.C. dirt fights and discussions, drop sessions in Mr. Cousin's class and last year's pep rallies were all popular with Pat, a witty senior and junior ILAP member.

Judith Anne Fearing

Vegetable corsages at the Backwards Dance and the Powder Room at the Junior Prom were great memories for Judie. This senior with the fun personality also remembers the wild times at Dad-Daughter Night and the football games.

Colette Fechser

Whether she does or doesn't know, "Fred" always asks "Do you know where a party is?" A great fan of Van Nuys "Bobs", she's just as willing to help out in class projects.

Terence John Feehan

Terry especially enjoyed ILAP at the Music Center, Career Day '66 and "South Pacific." "Chi Chi La Femme" and "Bird Brain" also made it all a lot of fun, not to forget the senior retreat and soph Field Day.

Eric John Fischer

Varied activities such as being lighting director for "South Pacific" and Varsity cross-country co-captain made "Ric" a real interesting guy. His special memories are the soph social and outing and Lettermen Initiations.

they come through you, but not from you

Joan Flannery

A quick-tempered, funny kid, whose favorite expression is "Whoopee!", used to wait hours for the football team to get out of their local meetings. Green-eyed Joan is known for never eating and turning plum-colored.

Janet Marie Foster

Feminine, concerned Jan sings on the fifty-mile hike to Music Theory, solicits candy apples, and washes cars. "Oh, you know what?" She got another letter from "Mike".

Vincent J. Fox

"Zorro", the frosh class president, was a Varsity member of football, basketball and baseball as well as Best Athlete of the Year. He'll never forget "How to Succeed" or the great retreats.

Douglas Mark Franich

Doug, an FEA member in "How to Succeed" and "South Pacific", remembers decorations at the Junior Prom and the annual freeze at Homecoming games.

Sibby L. Freeman

Known as "Sybil" or "Sugar Lump-Lump," our Student Body President is constantly on the move—winning contests and debates, attending Boys' State, flashing his "diplomat smile" and looking for the minutes.

Kathleen Emilie Gallaher

If you were ever in Mr. McKnight's History class and heard a friendly, "Hi there, bummer," it could have been Kathy and her teddy bear. Running around in stocking feet and packing for the Peru Drive are some of her activities.

William Ascencion Gallegos

Bill, a Varsity football player, remembers games against Crespi and St. Francis, as well as Homecoming '66 and Glee Club.

Stephen Michael Galvin

Even Mr. Garcia's gentle(?) little taps on the head don't mar Steve's memories of shooting, playing football, and running on Bee track.

Adrienne Ruth Garcia

"Let's go," says active Adie, who still maintains an innocent look, though she's late almost every morning. With her quiet sense of humor, she had great fun at the Junior Prom and the ILAP film festival.

Michael Ralph Gardina

"Poly", a guitar player and member of the stage band, came to Alemany in his Junior year. The excitement and spirit of football games are what he remembers most.

Robert C. Fuller

Bob has fond memories of "South Pacific" and "Anne Frank". But what's this about cutting up braces because they seemed to be made wrong?!

Rose Anne Fusano

Always on a diet is Rosie—a homeroom vice-president and drill team member. She continually talks about Chris and it's no wonder she says "Oh, how neat!"

John Gajdos

John worked on the Pow-Wow staff, and went to football games and parties afterward. Being on the Pavilion before school with Loui, going on retreats and enjoying the Fiesta Days were all great memories.

Michael John Gallagher

"Leprechaun" Mike especially remembers the crunching of the "Critters" and the Soph class outing.

James Thomas Gerardi

Jim was on Varsity baseball through his soph to senior year, taking an active part in other athletics. Beating Pomona Catholic 9-4 for first place is something he won't ever forget.

James P. Gerhard

Jim, whose real name is involvement, was in student affairs, active in political interests and writings and a member of the debating team. As a Boys' State representative, he remembers the endless searching for values.

Cynthia Louise Giacomini

Sensitive, creative Cindi remembers being in the Alemany Combo and the Madrigal singers, which gives a good indication of what a beautiful voice she has. Spirited and hard-working, she has been a credit to the class.

Rosalba Anne Giannini

Ro remembers washing cars, decorating the Powder Room and when "I was in Italy." English Leather doesn't settle too well with Rose. It could be because she's so warmly Italian.

best dancers

John Moriarty

Vicki Borquez

Ann Therese Gilbert

Annie won't be forgotten, especially in Glee(ful) Club with her "Bald men have no dandruff." Even though she does pop the clutch, "Nothing's wrong!" that a little "bug" won't help.

Stephen R. Gile

Attending the Junior Prom and Homecoming '66 was yell leader "Gomer" who does great Bill Cosby imitations at pep rallies while the cheerleaders do great imitations of him.

Gary Michael Gillan

Gary worked in Student Council and was Student Body Treasurer in his junior year as well as holding parts in the musicals and receiving awards. His special memory was the mass on November 22, 1963.

Johanna Gilmore

Did "you know" that Big Chief Indian Maiden Jody is a loyal scatter-brain? But don't forget—she's also a vivacious, spirited former junior class cheerleader who's worked hard and long at making the drill team as good as it is.

David Edmund Giorgio

Dave has been Editor of the POW-WOW, who's worked hard and appreciated the results of the Junior Prom and the Christmas Dance. Active also in Student Council for two years, he remembers the '66 St. Francis game.

Guadalupe Granillo

Becoming a beautician figures in the future plans of sweet, quiet Lupe who can't forget the Junior Prom and receiving Senior sweaters and rings.

Dennis Nicholas Grasso

Dennis supported Alemany at all the football and basketball games as well as observing(?) the silence rules on retreat at Manresa. Unforgettable to him was the Soph outing at Disneyland.

Frederick Griffin

Fred got around and made many friends. His special memories are retreats and the '66 Crespi game.

Linda Marilyn Gudzunas

Cheerful Lin has enjoyed Mr. McKnight's enlightening Spanish classes, worked hard in TTR and cheered at the Crespi game—and don't forget, she drives very well.

Richard C. Guerrero

Manresa retreat, ILAP, and after school beach visits meant a lot to quiet Rich who is known as being intelligent for cutting down the Crespi dummy?!

Robert P. Golisch

The folk club, getting into accidents, being in sports, and attending football and basketball games have not made Rob a dull boy. In fact he's still raring to go, especially to the Senior Prom.

Michael R. Gonsor

"Honeybear" will always remember Varsity and Bee football, beating the Critters in '66 and of course, Marni.

Denzil Goodnight

The spirit and pride of Alemany at the '66 St. Francis game, the stimulating sessions in ILAP and being on the ("What a sweat!") cross-country team, are all remembrances of Mike, the gambler.

Mary Graff

Optimistic "Graff" has served as the Pow-Wow activities Editor, in the Latin Club and the Christmas Play. Subtly sarcastic, she's saved up memories of the Junior Prom and the Homecoming dances.

though they are with you, they belong not to you

Donald Louis Gunther

"Blimp" came to Alemany as a transfer student in '65-'66 and quickly fit into Varsity football and in the Lettermen's Club. This vanilla ice-cream favorite received best actor in "South Pacific" and unforgettable action in the Crespi game.

Stephen A. Gunther

The Pow-Wow, the Junior Prom and Mrs. Meyer's typing class were never the same after "Red" was a part of them.

Carlos Guzman

Don Carlos de Guzman de Vitela de Nochistlan graced the CSF, Glee Club and Sister William Joseph's science classes with his unmatchable presence. Even Mr. Schmidt's jokes were never as good as his.

Roderick A. Guzman

Rod was both a spectator and a participant at Alemany. He enjoyed Bee and Cee games, the '63 St. Francis game and being in ILAP and on the lighting crew of "Guys and Dolls".

Robert John Haas

A true-to-life J. Pierpont, Bob really knows "How to Succeed" in the stock market. His big memories are senior retreat and spiritedly attending the football games.

Kenneth Richard Haefliger

In case you don't believe that "Hypo" was in ILAP, the Glee Club, Dr. Parsa's Biology class and the senior retreat—just ask Frank. Then you'll probably find out about the day anyone could get into the library.

Jane Hall

The St. Francis football team can't very well forget Janie—she's the one who walked in on them while they were changing in the girls' locker room. But it wasn't all that bad, because she did a great job in TTR, on the Junior Prom committee and in "How to Succeed."

Lawrence T. Hamilton

Larry remembers the away events at Alemany, especially retreats, the Soph outing at Disneyland and the great Critters game at Birmingham.

Linda Hansen

"I'm hep" Hansen livened up the Business Club, drill team and pep rallies with her sweet friendliness and crazy sense of humor. When she says "What a dud," she doesn't really mean it 'cause she's a really great friend.

Rosemary Hebert

Independent Rose filled her high school years by working at the hospital, practicing in drill team and belonging to the Business Club. Assured and sincere, she makes a great friend.

Elizabeth Ellen Henehan

Betsy, the gay, smiling "Hey" girl was a vital part of Glee Club and the make-up crew for the plays. She enthusiastically remembers the Junior Prom and Homecoming '66.

Steven Wayne Henzel

A quick-witted computer known as "Nerves," Steve shared in activities of ILAP, NHS, annual staff and of course, CSF. His best memories are of Wrightwood, "How to Succeed" and Biology class.

John S. Hernandez

Mr. Bennett's History class, retreat, and Coach Ahn's English class were all part of the picture of Alemany for "Pablo Picasso." However, he won't forget "So'n So's" and the art sessions—they were wild sketches too.

Maria M. Hernandez

A funny personality has Nina, the giddy native girl in "South Pacific." Though she likes to say, "Hey girl, get lost!", you can rest assured that it's only her sense of humor showing.

Caroline Hawthorne

The February 12th JV basketball game meant a lot to "Naggit," as well as being a Varsity Cheerleader and ILAP member. Unpredictable, sentimental and most of all lovable, little Carol is a big brain in disguise.

David William Headley

"Mary Poppins is a Junkie!" proclaims Dave's wild car, while its illustrious owner is active in "How to Succeed" ILAP, the swim team and the Lettermen's Club.

Kathleen Louise Heath

Fighting the Alemany wind ("Wait for me!") for four years was unpredictable Kathy, who enjoyed Mr. McKnight's wild history class and Homecoming '64. Gathering ivy for the Junior Prom and marching in the drill team were among her most special memories.

Gary Carl Hinman

Letterman Gary, who has his own ideas of "Happiness . . . ," is a senior homeroom president, active in class projects and at lunch. "Pelican" is an all-around great guy who'll never forget Initiations and '66 Homecoming.

John Dean Holloway

Quiet, friendly John enjoyed Mr. Foxworth's educational classes, Doctor Connell's jokes, the Christmas Dance and the Junior Prom, but the soph social bored him.

Janice Hopf

Beginning when she was a freshman and experienced O'Malley's unexpected showers, Jan has really been moving. She's been Penny Princess ("anyone for a kiss?"), director and emcee for the Talent Show, a homeroom officer and a member of Student Council. A Hopf password is "Everything was fine . . . then John called!"

you may give them your love but not your thoughts

Susan Elizabeth Iavello

Smiling Sue remembers the '66 Backwards Dance when she went broke, all the parties at her house on Friday nights, and January 3, 1966. Active in the India drive, on dance committees and in "Inherit The Wind", she has a good sense of humor.

Kathleen Ann Hylton

Kath, an unpredictable scatter-brain, remembers wild bus rides to games and those way-out Frosh gym classes. "Oh no!" She couldn't be talking about uniforms when she says, "I love it!"

Sandra Rita Iadevaia

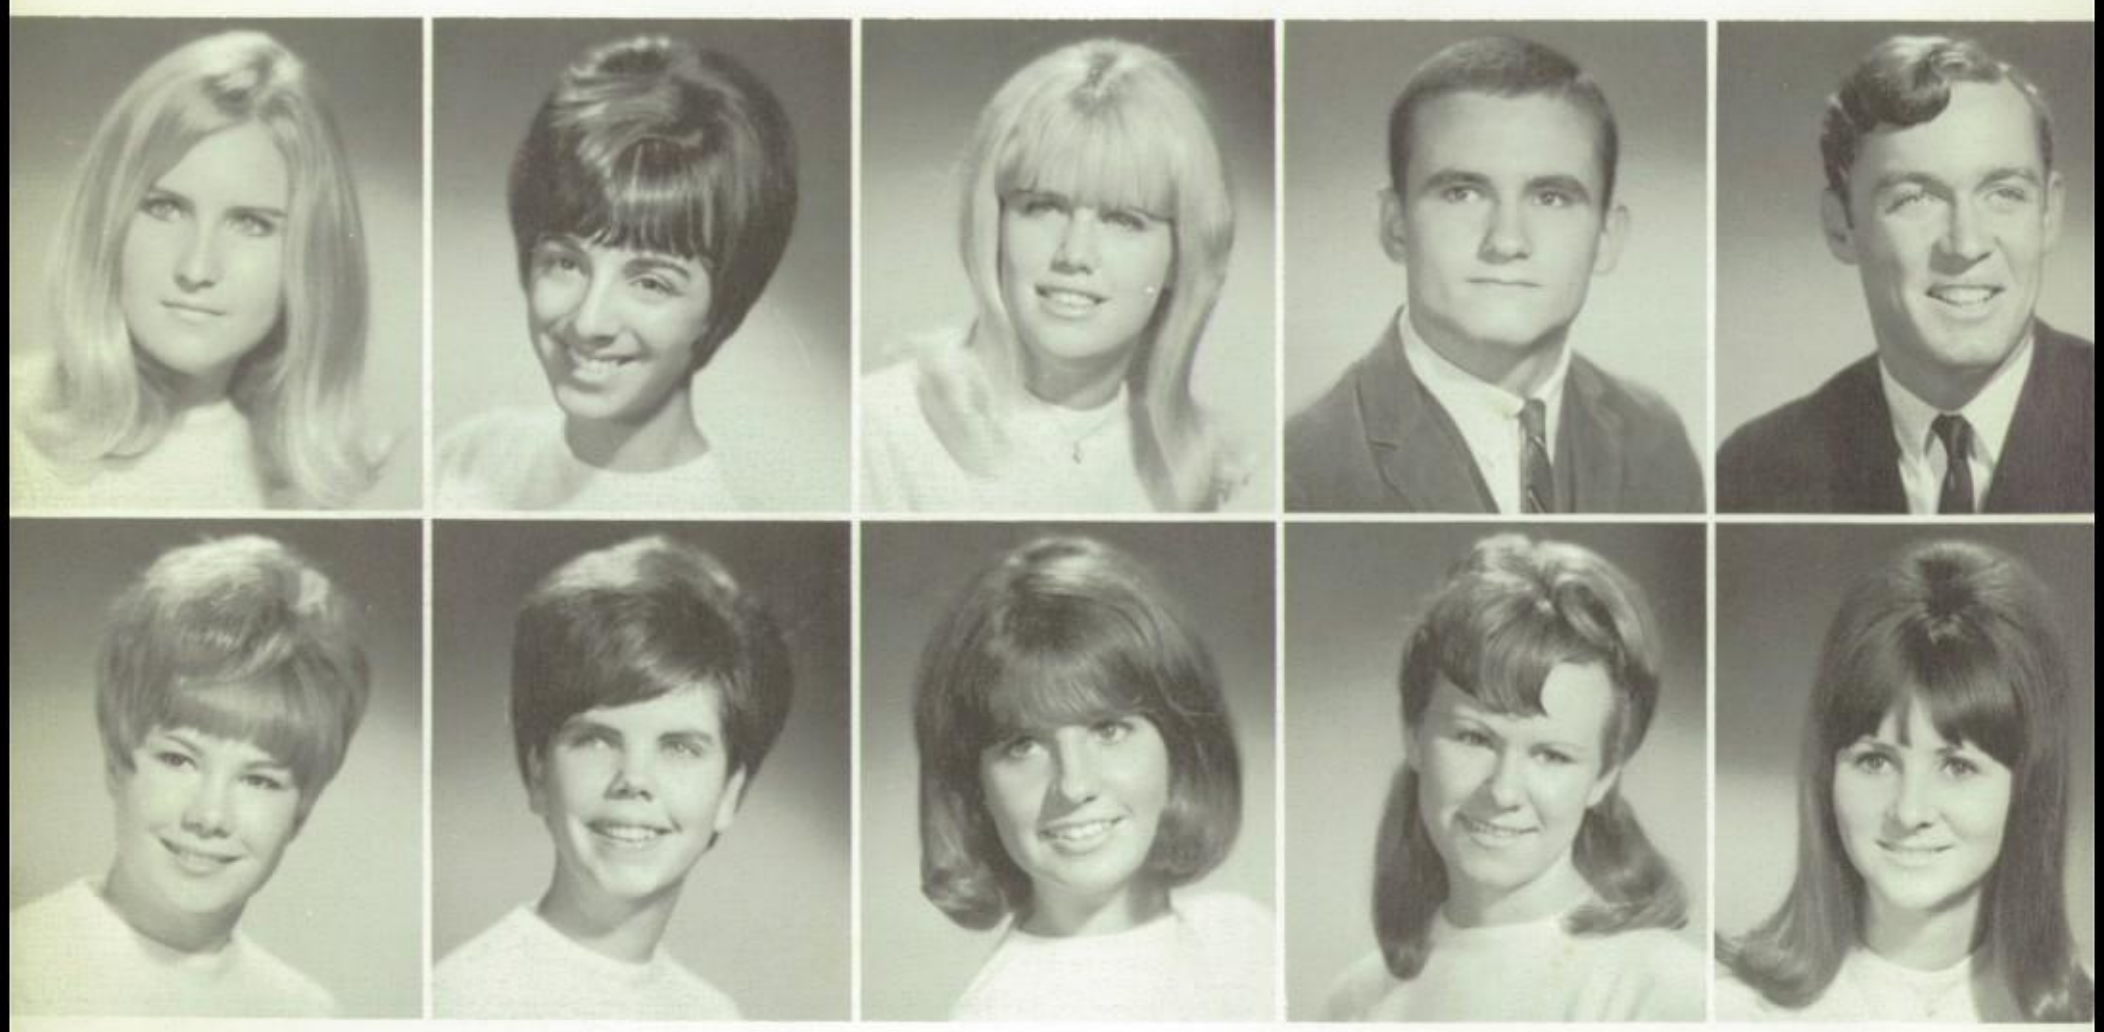
Irrespressible Sandy is always talking—whether it be about Homecoming '64, Sweater Day, or the Junior Prom. You'll often hear, "How redundant" from this bouncy, fun-loving Senior.

Michael Richard Jackson

"Panda", the "Braggart" is justifiably proud of being a Varsity Letterman on football, basketball and Student Council. But nothing could top "Best Physics Student—'66".

Michael Alan Jamieson

Friendly Mike has to his credit, among other things, "the day I smashed the car into the basketball pole" and "the day we ditched and went to the beach." Still he can't forget Varsity baseball or the Junior Prom either.



Carole Ann Johnston

Fun to be with Carole remembers her academic life as including Latin slavery, making collages, and tin can sculpture. She keeps others smiling simply because "Carole is Carole!"

Susan Johnston

GAA vice-president, Sue, never stops going. A friendly nut, she's always helping behind the scenes, adding her down-to-earth sense of humor to all occasions.

Dianne Jordon

Remember "Professor Clyde Crashcup" of Glee Club, "I didn't study, did you?" and the dancing back end of the bull? Then you must recall "Miss Monkey"!

Veronica Ann Juels

"Oh no, you're kidding me!" often says this hard-working member of ILAP. Fun to laugh with Veronica remembers especially the Music Center and the Senior Tribute.

Kathleen Sue Kampman

"Try to Remember" Drill team and the mud and the 30 degree Homecoming game. Don't forget either, San Francisco, enlightening ILAP lectures, or the sensitive crazy Kath!

Janette Johnson

"Hi, group" says opinionated Jan. She's a spirited Broadway Hi-deb, who freezes at games, goes on retreat, makes long collages (30 feet) and neat clothes, tries harder in drill team, and loves soul music.

Joann Marie Johnson

When Jo says, "Come on, you guys," she might mean to the beach (the long way). Even with "Pow-Wow" deadlines, this "Girl from AUNT" always manages to remain cheerfully determined, as well as a loyal friend.

Linda Ann Johnson

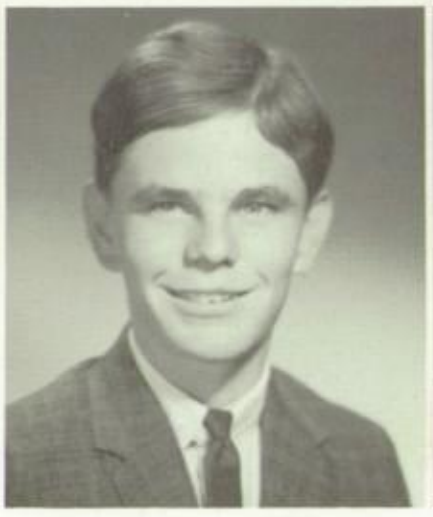
Linda, a stagecraft member, recalls all the fun backstage of "South Pacific" and designing the "Ann Frank" set. However, our outgoing Science Club President does get her kicks from guillotining rats!

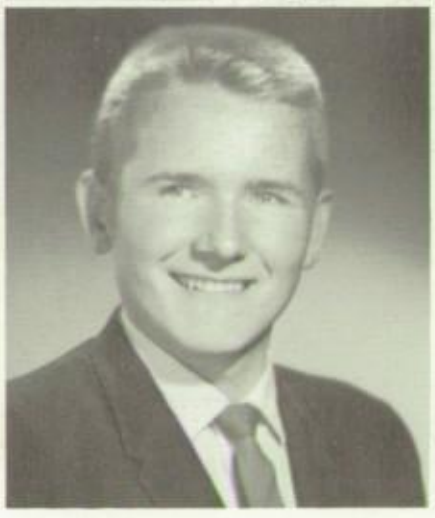
Mark Anthony Johnson

"Tarzan", the Best Offensive Back, will never forget the fun and games of Lettermen initiations, and beach parties or the honor of making All League.

Robert William Johnson

Intelligent, always concerned Bob is an active guy who enjoys the ILAP choral group and the no-strict-rules retreat.





Denzil Lawrence Kathman

Serving his country well is Larry "Catman," a sailor in "South Pacific." He'll never forget retreats, the Junior Prom or Father O'Flynn's study halls.

Joseph Wallace Kearns

Joe, a Varsity swimmer and baseball man, will always remember those great retreats in Junior and Senior Year.

Robert Lee Keehne

Bob recalls the fun and work of Cee football and the spiritual inspiration(?) of all the retreats.

John Thomas Kelleher

Varsity football and track are the activities that made Big John shine. He was also a Young Democrat and a CBS member.

James Joseph Ketchoyian

"The old man" probably set the record when he received seven citations in one day at the library. Jim especially recalls football, the Junior Prom committee and Father Rath's playtime.

Robert Wesley Killian

"Bimbo", an ILAP member, remembers incense, stink bombs and Biology classes with Dr. Parsa. Neither will he forget the fun of Wrightwood and beating Crespi.

Elizabeth Ann Kimpel

"Wanna hear another good one?" Ask Liz, the unpredictable Lettergirl and GAA officer. She'll tell you "Oh, it's just a minor thing!", but she'll never forget her Junior year.

Rochelle Joyce Kirkpatrick

Thoughtful, energetic "Rocky" attends football games, asks "What's comin' off?", goes to ILAP and Latin classes and brings along her great sense of humor and a friendly smile.

Francis William Kitcko

Our not too funny Recuerdos editor, "Fronk" (with a French accent), can't forget "Ah, Wilderness," "South Pacific" and "How To Succeed" as Bigley. As the class V.P., he threw the famous "Kopp's Party."

Sharon Rose Krol

"Are you a little bit weird?"
"Smiley," a talkative T.V. watcher, who has a facial expression for every occasion. She digs cowboys, ILAP buses and Christmas programs.

Christine Kroll

Kooky Chris, a friendly artist, is active in the GAA, Girls' Glee Club and the swim team. She'll never forget how we won the Spirit Trophy three times in Junior year.

Elaine Eleanor Krzystofczyk

Life is "jelly beans," "Congratulations!" and making people laugh for optimistic "Ernie". Homecoming, baking, and ILAP are some of her memories.

Douglas Frank Kucera

Alemany holds many memories for Doug, a humorous Letterman—Mr. Graci and Vasquez Rocks, varsity track, and ILAP cultural outings. ("Notice the artistic value of this drain!")

Cathy Noreen Klafta

Who ate cabbage three times a day at drill team camp and has green "cat eyes"? "You know what?" It just has to be the "Outstanding Cheerleader" with the eyelashes—Cath!

Sara Margaret Klens

Generous, unpredictable Sara remembers when her French class was asked to leave and did! She put her unlimited imagination to work in ILAP, Frosh gym classes, and making all her friends at Alemany.

Earl Joseph Kleimann

Earl enjoyed Alemany life, which was filled with retreats, the Crespi game, Fr. Kearnan's Religion classes and English with Mr. Foxworth.

Judith Ann Kolp

Always happy, Jude made life lots of fun, working on the Prom, in homeroom 24 and Police Community Relations at the Mayor's Council.

Janice Lynn Korta

"Let's go somewhere!" is Janice in a nutshell. Besides being a talented artist, she's a spirited drill team member and a concerned friend.

Frederick Charles Kuebler

"Peaches" has been known to take chances in his active career as a sports commentator, an actor in "Theophile" and "Ah! Wilderness," and a Casanova— Intelligent, fun, and friendly is "Kuebie."

Steven Anthony Kukuczka

Versatile "Red" is a singer in Glee, a member of "South Pacific," a manager of track, a good conversationalist, and a cross country runner.

Linda Marie Laker

Always ready for anything is energetic Lin, a Business Club member and a devoted problem solver, but when it rains . . . !!

Merilee Ann Lendzion

Poor "Mert" started her career off as a lost Freshman and she got a complaint slip for it! She'll always remember the Senior Tribute and all the Dad-Daughter skits.

Kathleen Maureen Lewis

Kathe! Could you ever forget drill team and Pep Club with Sister, suffering through the history of salvation in ILAP or the stolen green garter?!

wildest dressers

eric carlson

sue pierzalowski

Stephanie Ann Licu

Sincere, sentimental ("I cry a lot") Steph danced to "Buttons and Bows" in TTR, and asked "What's happening?" in stagecraft. As an excited JV cheerleader and confused Pep Club historian, she adds to the panic with an "Oh no!"

Patricia Lindauer

Pat, a spirited Pep Club member, recalls all the fun of cheering at football games and working in the fashion show.

Gail Lindsay

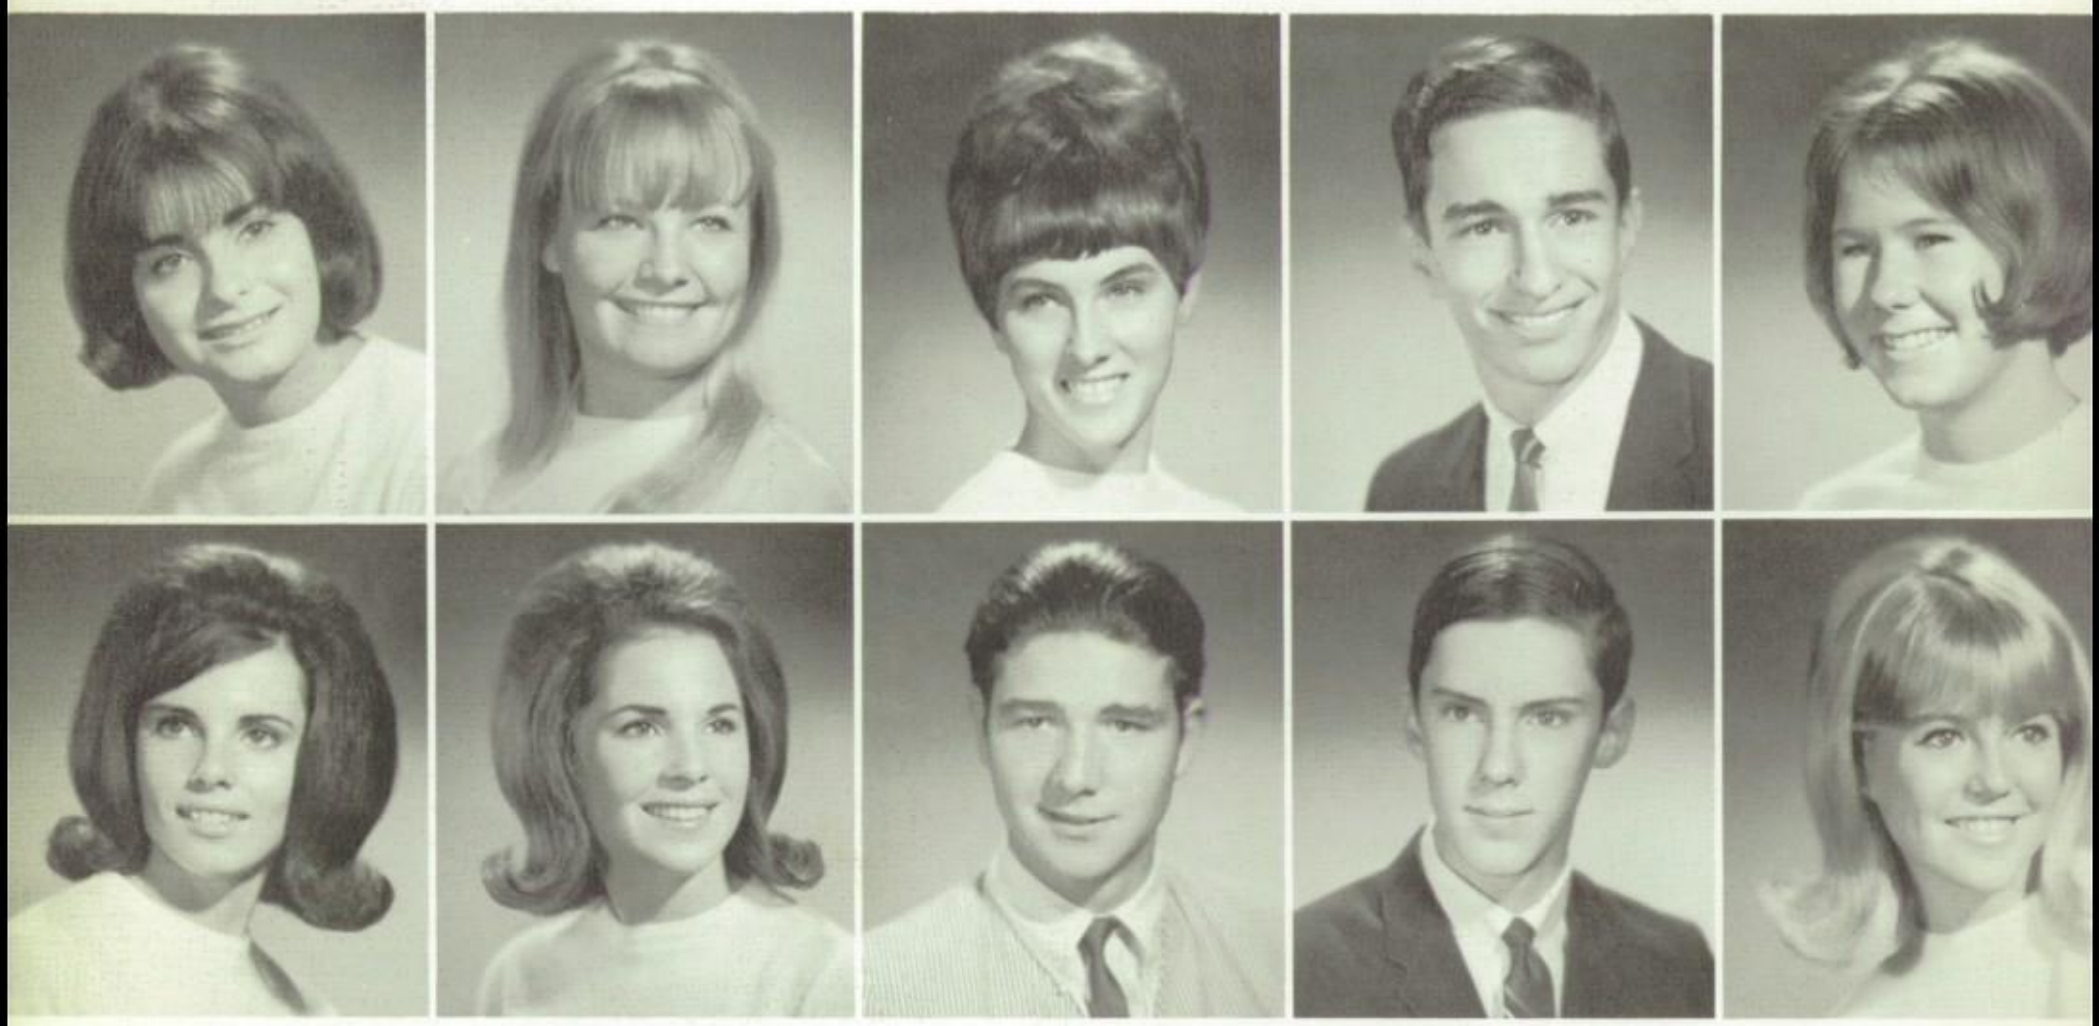
Warm, sincere Gail is a true friend who holds the memories of many games, dances, and retreats.

Kenneth Lisi

That talented old devil, Ken, made it big in "Theophile", "South Pacific", "Diary of Ann Frank" and "How to Succeed". When his thespian services aren't needed, there are always projectors to run and screens to be set up.

Kathleen Joyce Looney

Then there is Loo. The senior Penny Princess, fantastic joke teller and a all-around spirited person, she cares genuinely. "Remember—the next best thing to experience is Kathy Looney."



Sharon Macchiarella

"Sheep Dog" won't be easily forgotten as the Business Club founder who gives a great "Boobi Banner" presentation. Magnetic and funny, she remembers the '66 Senior Prom and the annual staff.

Sheila Marie Macchairella

Talkative, talented "Crip" treasures going out for senior class cheerleader, attending Homecoming and the Junior Prom and the football season. Being always energetic is Sheila.

Frank P. MacDonald

Frank, an interested student, remembers all the exciting sports and the enjoyable four years he experienced at Alemany.

Richard Paul MacFarlane

History awards and "South Pacific" in his junior year, along with "How to Succeed" and senior retreat all equalled a good memory of high school for Rich.

Victoria Lee Major

You can't help being jazzed about Vicki. She's the crazy cheerleader who fell off her stool ("Oh pshaw") and the beautiful blonde with the wild laugh who remembers the "boss" Junior Prom and Homecoming '66.

for they have their own thoughts

Linda Lucan

"Tizzy Lizzy" digs pinata bulls, Biology labs and tennis trophies. However, only her sense of humor could save her from the tragedies of having short hair and a tendency to be late for art!

Patrick Nelson Luke

Pat, an artistic surfer and cross country runner, enjoyed ILAP, stagecraft, the FEA and "the worst retreat of the year." Lunch, 1-4, however, held the greatest delight to him.

Mary Jeanne Lynch

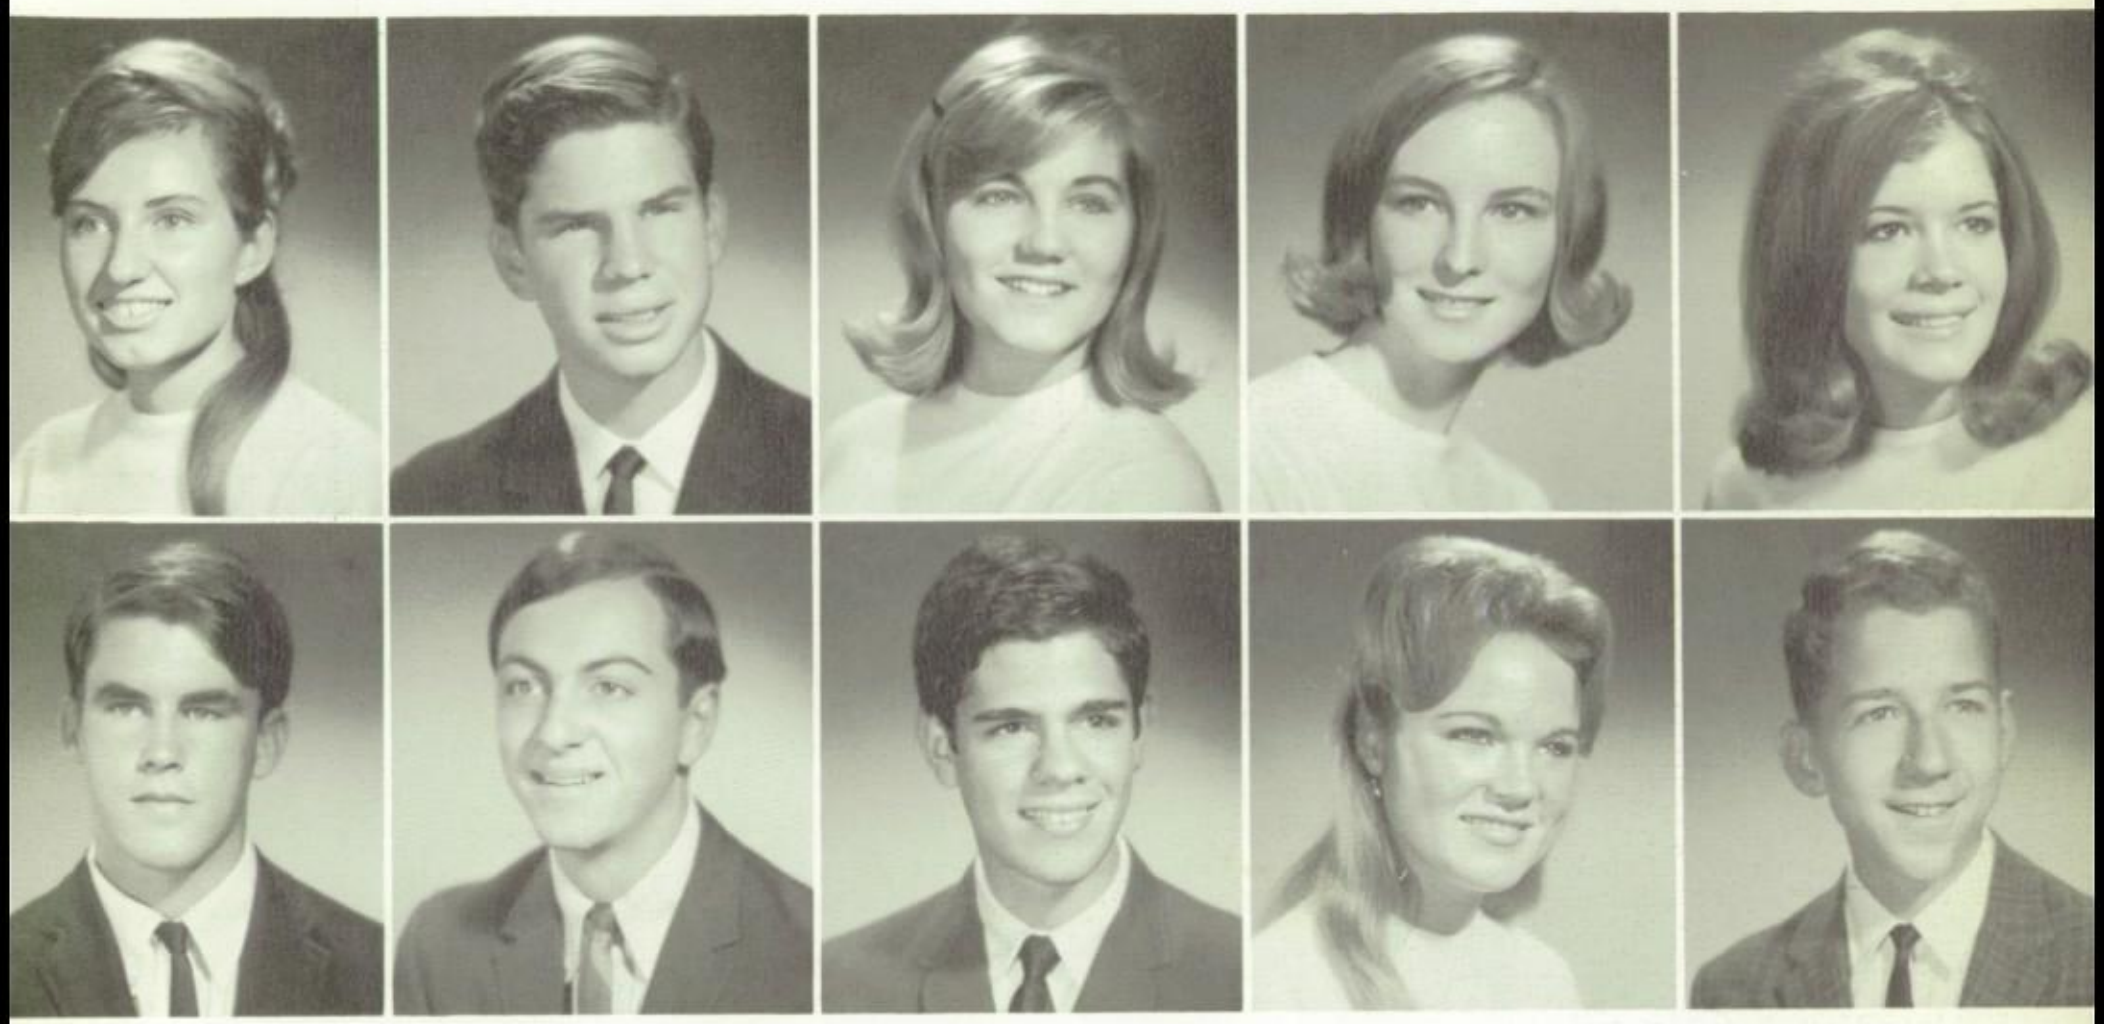
A fun, lively worker saying "Hi there!" is Mary Jeanne. With flying gestures and a quick brain, she's head of the Spirit Committee and working on half a million other things.

Mary Jane Lynn

M.J.'s most notable achievements were undoubtedly being chosen Junior Miss runner-up, joining the annual staff, and getting up for early morning Physics classes. But, lest we forget, this humorous girl with a great voice and guitar, once weighed 300 pounds!

Christine Anne Lyons

Generous, sparkly Chris had her Senior year filled with the work and fun of throwing Celebration Day and getting ready for college—"Wow!" A creative journalist on POW-WOW and the annual, she is loyal to the point of insanity (She is too, but she's fun!)



Christopher Mansfield

Chris may have never found his shoe, but he more than made up for it by being Varsity yell leader and a member of the CSF and NHS. An ILAP student for two years, he too can't forget the '66 Crespi game.

Daniel Joseph Marchetti

That "Out of sight!" yell leader who likes Spanish class and swimming is Danny. His memories are made of football and basketball games, retreats and Homecoming '66.

William Nicholas Marrazzo

Scientific brain Bill is also a creative humorous guy who held out on the honor roll and CSF. His extracurricular activities included "sandals 1-4", the Science Club and "How to Succeed."

Madelyn Martin

Carefree Maddie leads an active life—one of her various activities being volunteer work as a Candy-Striper.

Thomas Mitchell Matwiczak

Junior ILAP, retreat, the music seminar and the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament were standouts in Mat's years at Alemany, not to forget being on the honor roll as a Soph.

James Joseph McDonald

An avid surfer, Jim particularly enjoyed the football games at Alemany.

Enid Kathleen McDonell

Up until two in the morning ("more coffee?") with her beloved annual is Kath, the Fearless Leader. This creative genius does get out once in awhile though, because she remembers the cultural weekend in Fresno, "Inherit the Wind" and Glee Club.

Lynn Maureen McDonie

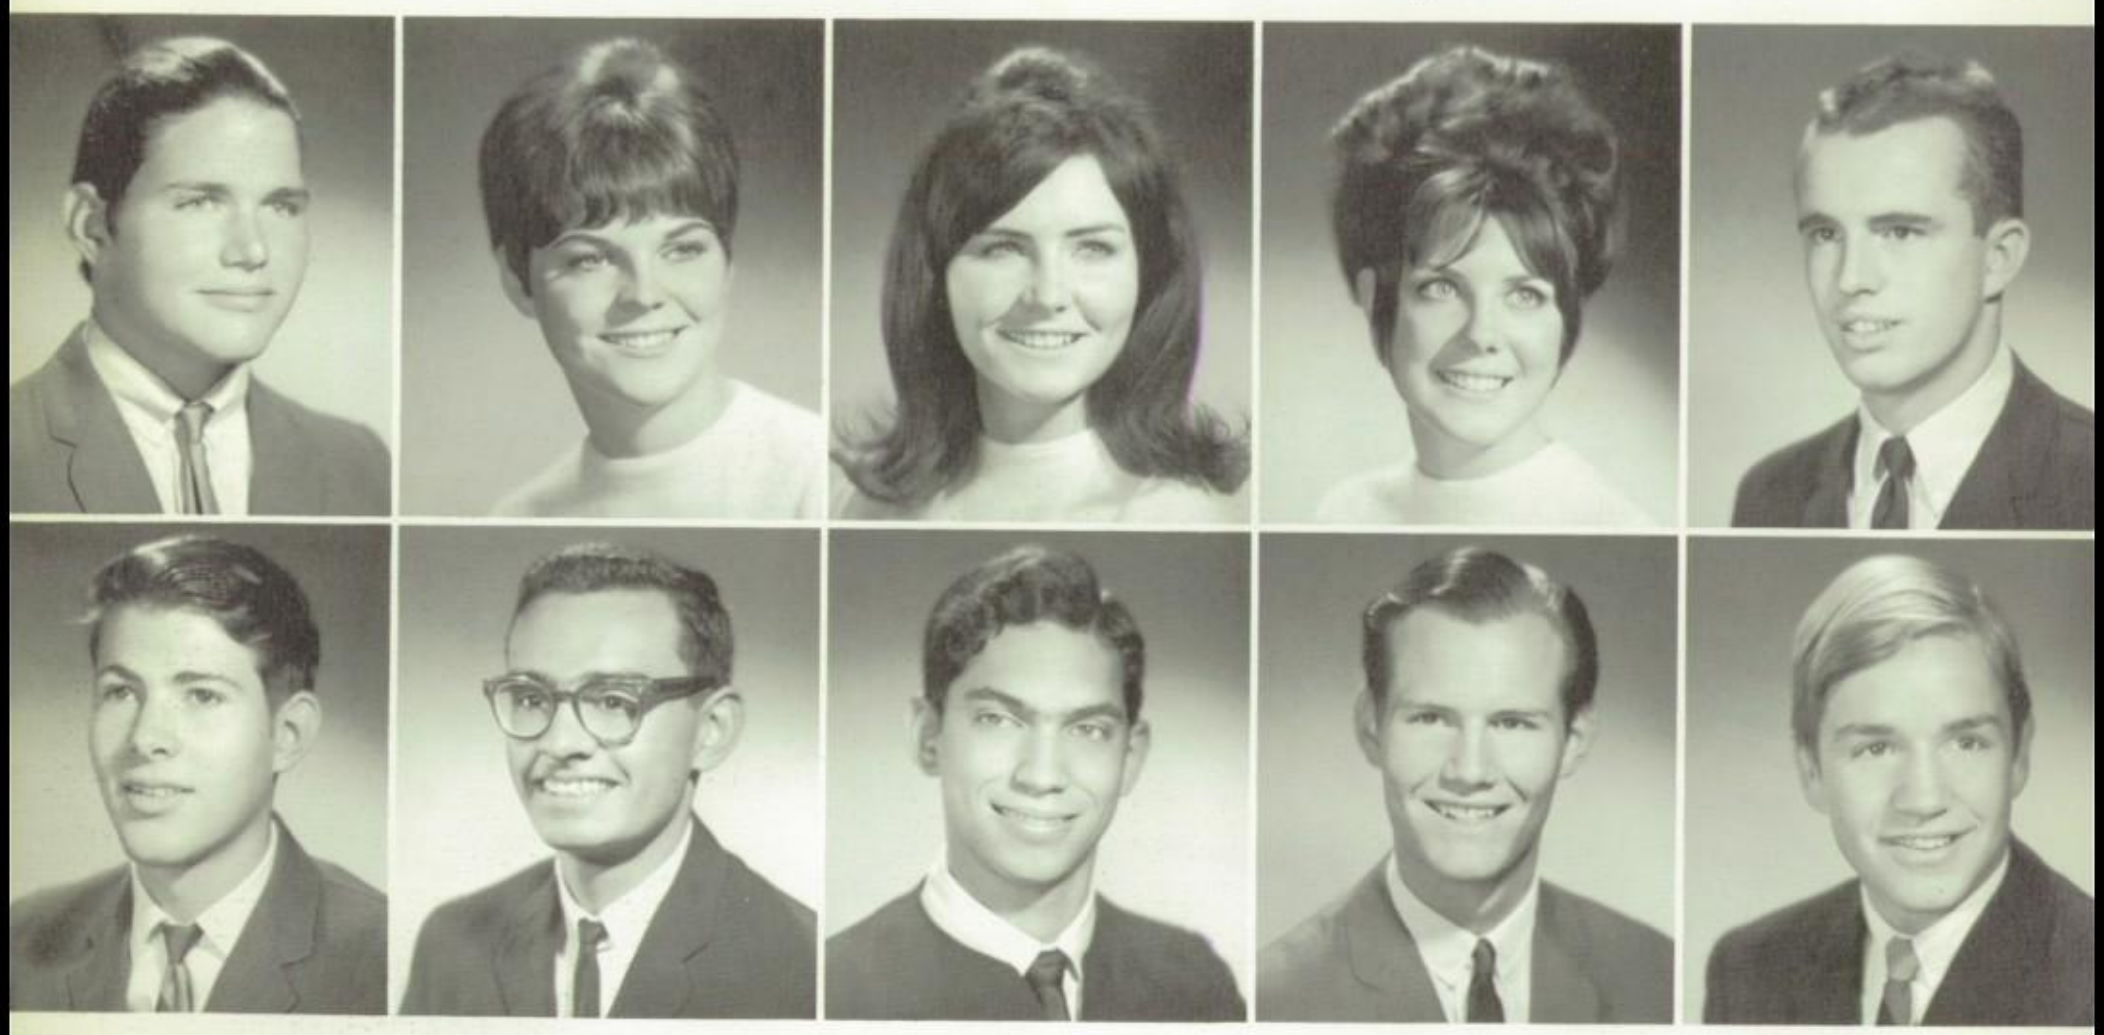
"I had this dream last night" says "Lollypop", the kooky Prohibition leader. She trips on stairs and into puddles gracefully, dramatically and delightfully, too.

Jacqueline Marie McGeary

Swinging, generous Jackie is one in a million. She wins speech contests, directs plays, acts, writes, paints and sings with that special Jackie touch. Jacqueline Marie McGeary is Jacqueline Marie McGeary—that's all you can say.

Norman F. McGilvray

Jeep-driving Norm is indispensable if a mechanic is needed. Alemany to him, was ILAP and the NYC.



William James McMahon

Jet-Set member "Winnie" specializes in music. His awards and activities have included: second place in the Solo and Brass Ensemble contest and membership in the Stage Band and the Glee Club.

Arthur Mendias

A helpful coach in the Manager's Club, Art is a friendly "but weird!" baseball player who well remembers Mr. Gardina.

George Luis Mendoza

"Jorge" brought his wide smile and valuable sense of humor to ILAP, the Santa Rosa project, retreat and all the games, as a spirited, athletic yell leader.

Rex Harold Merz

A "Lunk", just in size, Rex made the honor roll as a junior and the JV basketball team as a freshman. His favorite memory is the St. Francis '66 game.

Terence Lee Meyer

Sociable "Little Oscar" remembers the bus to St. Francis, retreats and the Junior Prom. "Mellow" too was Homecoming and those trig classes.

Dear Linda
Isn't that a common way to start a letter?)
ok I'll be different,
Hated, Idiot,
(I told ya I'd be different)
I'm continuing this thing "on the night of my "party" and now that I read it I'm sorry
I messed up your annual so much. But I really have enjoyed our year together and the worst part is signing annuals. I can never think of anything to say only that I'll miss ya a lot and I'll write. Please never forget me cuz I'll luv ya 4 ever. Luv always, I'm sorry

Desert Ridge Dr.

Vincent Joseph McGrath

Vin remembers being a homeroom president, and a Student Council and Glee Club member, though he claims "We won't talk about what happened" when the dummy was cut down at the Crespi game.

Mary Helene McGuire

Mary Mary, where ya going to? Always dancing, talking or laughing, Mare is out to have a good time. Some of these good times at Alemany have been the '65 Homecoming, the famous Crespi game, Father Hughes' religion class and Sue's and Flora's lunches.

Virginia McKay

A friendly adventuress, Ginny uses ten dollar words and enjoys philosophizing, which she probably picked up from ILAP. Memories of McKay's are a picnic at Placerita, Disneyland, and the Music Center.

Doesn't he look like Clark?

Sandra Ann Miller

Dependable Sandy is easy to confide in. Also being crazy "Bungy", she finds it easy to recall Sr. Ann Elizabeth's Biology classes, her first day at Alemany and her frosh Spanish class.

Christopher James Milos

Standouts during Chris' stay at Alemany were Crespi (who didn't go) '66 and his senior retreat.

Arline Rebecca Milton

Having homeroom in the wrong hall was Arline who had to also cope with a bottom locker for three years. Remembered especially for her long hair and frankness, she served as the official ticket seller for the Drama Department.

Christie Joanne Molidor

"Snoopie" is the mini-skirted majorette who leads the drill team around the field, decorates for Fiesta Days, works on "How to Succeed", and asks, "Where ya goin?"

Margaret Anne Molinelli

Never to be forgotten as "Bloody Mary," the lil 'ol bell-ringer, and the best-known senior in the class, Peg is as varied as the many friends she has. She sings, she jokes, she acts and she even talks: "Shove it, Bozo!" Exceedingly talented and ambitious, this girl's going to go places.

Jon Michael Molloy

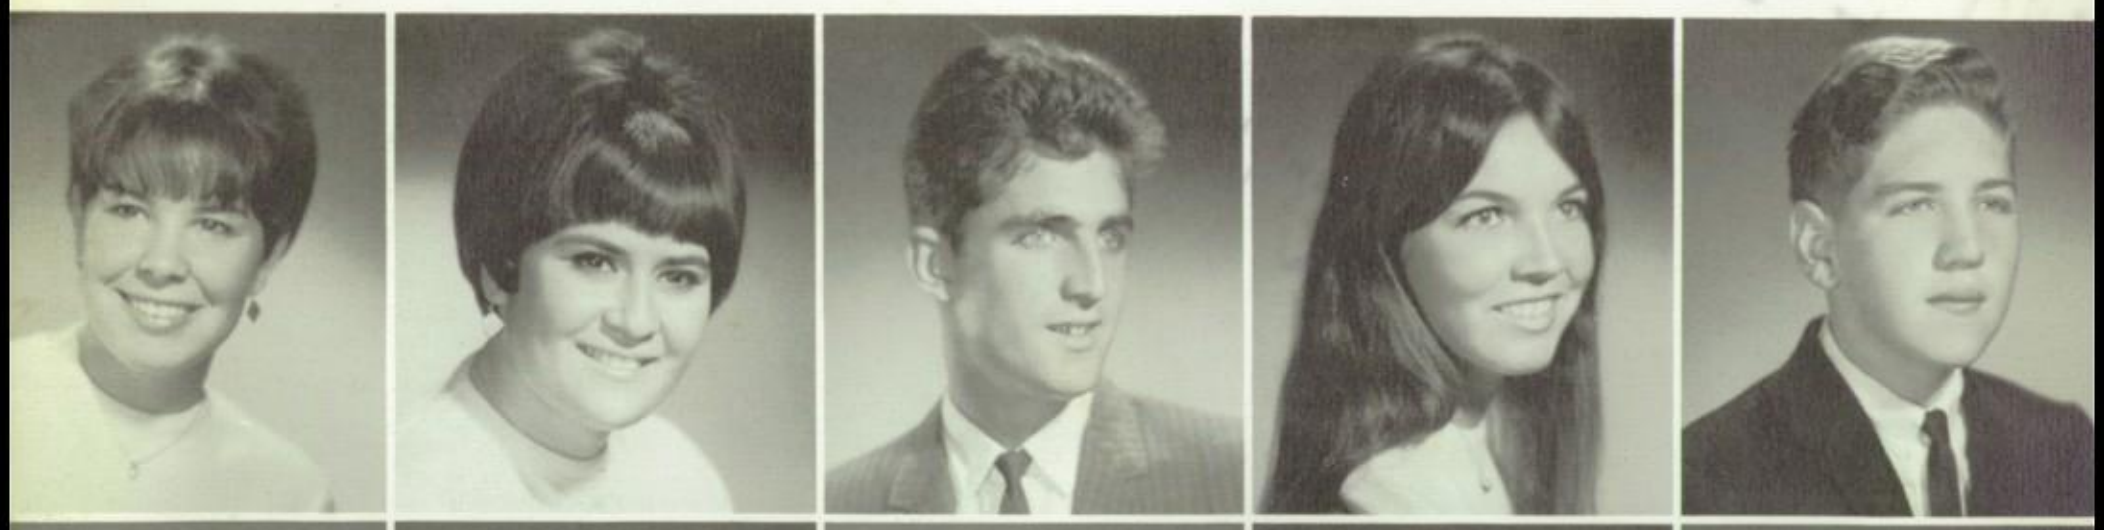
Jon is a Bee football and track member who remembers especially all the retreats and class outings.

Mary Jean Moore

Friendly, feminine Mary enjoys life and people. She'll always remember cheering at football games, ILAP, and the its always prepared papers! And especially that delicious spaghetti banquet! "I'm sure!"

Robert William Moran

"Spot" made a friendly, anti-social (?) NHS and track member. A CSF Veep, he recalls the gay confusion of ILAP and being a Cross-Country manager.



Joan Margaret Murphy

Joni seems fragile and delicate, but is strong and determined in what she sets out to do. That's "Murph"—going to cheerleading camp, saying "Ya little devil!" and making people happy.

Michael Wayne Murphy

If Mike had to do it over again he'd choose Alemany for the great friends and teachers. He'll always remember the Junior Prom and the Junior retreat.

Daniel Peter Nadsady

Dan made life enjoyable by being an intelligent, helpful friend.

Diane Therese Nagy

"Try to Remember", Di, Physics, ILAP, and the "five-minute" breaks, Glee Club and all the concerts and rehearsals. But most of all, you'll never forget all the wonderful people!

Stephen Napoli

"Coke" lived a well-rounded life at Alemany, playing basketball and baseball, taping Sister's bell down in Physics, and being co-chairman of the Junior Prom. He'll never forget beating La Salle in overtime!

you may house their bodies but not their souls

DEAREST DARLING LINDA,
THIS GEAR HAS BEEN REALLY GREAT. ALTHOUGH WE HAVE JUST GOTTEN TO KNOW EACH OTHER WELL THROUGHOUT THIS YEAR, I HAVE ADMIRED YOU AND HOPED TO KNOW YOU BETTER.
I LOVE YOU.
LOVE PAT

Kathleen Virginia Morey

Only Kathy could trip down the gym stairs while the boys yelled "encore". She also enjoys Junior Proms, Homecoming, and walking through thread tied around the school.

Paul Francis Morgan

Paul's career is filled with the memories of being a Frosh, playing in the band, and acting in "South Pacific". Could he ever forget the Christmas Dance or the Junior Prom?

John Joseph Moriarty

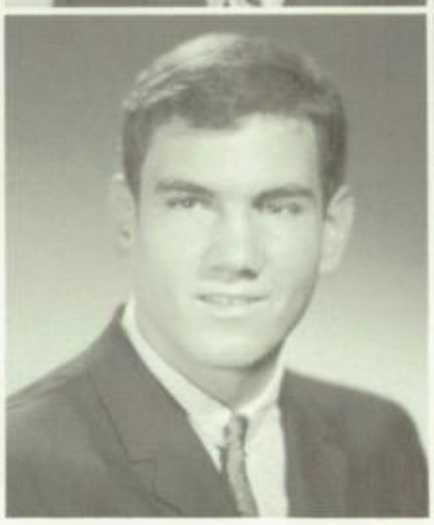
Active, sociable "Professor" has been in ILAP, on the honor roll and chairman of numerous dance committees. Of his many memories, Homecoming games, Senior retreat and Fr. O'Flynn's class particularly stand out.

Edward Morykwas

"Bud Frump" is continually caught up in the whirl of earning achievement awards and acting in all the plays. He's an active member of the Fourth Reich and the Sam Rice fan club, among others.

Patricia Ann Mouzis

Vivacious and talented Pat is a member of drama, Glee Club and the Little Sisters Committee. Among her achievements, are rubbing noses, falling asleep at "Bob's", and getting proposals.



Maria Napolitano

Warm, friendly Maria made a spirited Senior class cheerleader, who enjoyed drill team and working on the Senior Tribute. A good dancer, she also has a great sense of humor!

Daniel R. Naranjo

Varsity and Bee track member, Dan, remembers confraternity, Fr. Nourie's Religion classes and the Crespi game.

Joseph B. Nestor

Varsity swimming, track, and football got this "Tree" up practicing at 6:30 A.M. "Quite the kick" were Father Regan's Physics classes and the Soph retreat.

Thomas R. Neuman

"Tom der Spielegenhaben" is (who else?) the friendly NHS member, Band Letterman, and Captain who remembers "Anne Frank" for its cast parties. This "fearfulleader" of the Fourth Reich is an active and interested retreatant, too.

Mark Hazen Nickerson

A music-minded brain in the NHS, CSF and folk music club is German award winner Mark. A great guitar strummer, he also was active in Forensics and the Glee Club.

Candace Jane Nims

Humorous Candi is a good friend to have at pep rallies. She enjoyed Alemany's Young Peoples' Mass and joint class meetings as an interesting and outspoken Senior.

Katherine Noe

Kathi is a sincere, loving person, who sometimes acts crazy and is always considerate. A party-going crew member of "South Pacific," she went to the Backwards Dance with Don (?) and will never forget November 24, 1966!

James David Norton

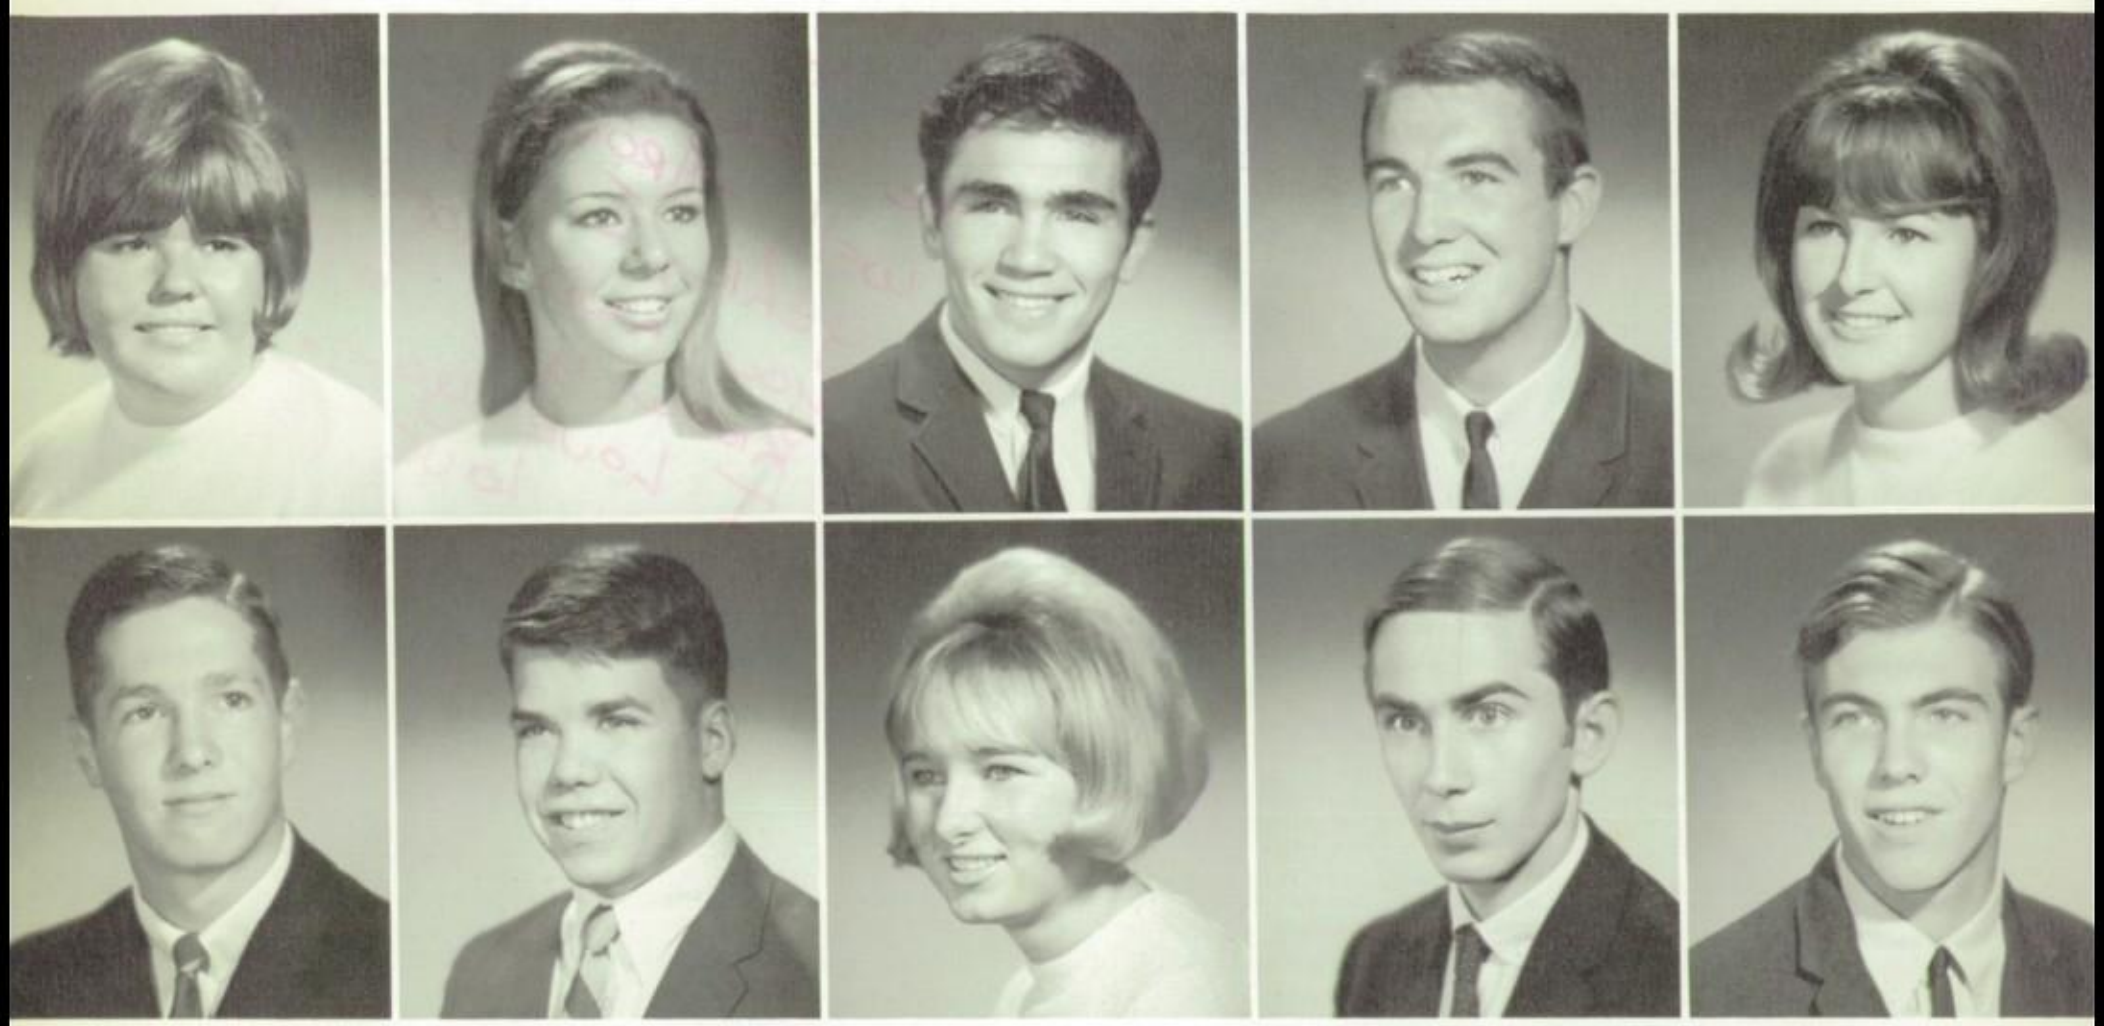
Jim is an ILAP member doing "Nottin'" but living for baseball. ("Hooray for baseball") and the Pomona game. He makes an active and humorous Letterman officer.

James Francis O'Connor

Jim, as "The Big Kahuna" on Varsity football remembers the "good ol' days of practice" when he was Best Offensive Back. He wonders "How to Succeed" in ILAP as a witty, easygoing Letterman.

Kathleen Anne O'Malley

"You're beautiful" and "Bun-hugger" are the by-words of the fun and exciting majorette know as O'Malley. This fast-talking Annual and Stagecraft member recalls Homecoming and Mr. Diaz' tin cans in ILAP.



Donald F. Ouimette

Do you recall "The Dawn We Met"? "Lip" is the same guy who was active in all the sports and received a trophy in the basketball tournament.

Mark Eldon Overholser

Spit wads, sweet-tarts and homeroom experiences are memories held by a certain Yell Leader called "Parky." He also remembers sessions with his counselor Patty.

Lucinda Christine Owen

Cyn, the "little one", trips down gym stairs, goes out for track, makes fish faces, and in spite of it all, is always optimistic.

Leonard Anthony Palazzolo

Taking an interest in both sports and scholastics, Len has received an Instrumental music award, been active in the Electronics and Managers' Club and served as a manager in football, basketball, track and wrestling.

Richard James Pardi

Rick is a quiet and sometimes funny surfer, enjoying retreats, biology classes and the unforgettable Kopps' party.

Nancy O'Tousa

Nan, a peanut-butter-on-celery fan, and Service Committee Chairman, dances at Junior Proms, fails chem tests, and rides a wild V.W.

Jan Oliver

The cool dancing Oliver makes a practice of talking, laughing and torturing little sisters.

Christine Marie Orme

Radiant, sophisticated Chris demonstrates the practical values of the egg and education. Even with a loud horn and ten overdue books . . . "Well geez, guys", she's great!

Judith Ann Otrando

Warm, bubbly Judy belongs the Pep Club, Drill Team and Alan! As a homeroom secretary, she's worked hard for the class, showing geniune enthusiasm and concern.

Flora Parsa

A good listener, Feri' cares enough to give advice and think about others' problems. "Gimme dough!" says the always laughing "Little Persian" who remembers retreat '66, the day Judy ran over the dog and study hall.

Linda Victoria Pascua

"Hey, lover!" characterizes Alemany's beautiful black-haired piano player-fun-loving Linda. Paul, her many friends, and the Music Center catastrophe are special memories.

Robert S. Pawlak

Varsity baseball and making the Honor Roll are Bob's achievements, along with surviving ILAP. He remembers especially the retreat at Wrightwood.

Charlene Catherine Pedersen

Char is lively and interested in others. She remembers her miserable existence as a Latin slave and, more important, Senior year—with sweater day, lectures in ILAP and her own little sister.

funniest

frank kitcko

peggie molinelli

Sharon Pembleton

Shari, in a "Super-Groovy-Group", gets skipping heart beats with "struts", and wants to know "Who threw water in my face?" Remembering the unforgettable Junior Prom and Dad-Daughter Night is this fun-loving Senior.

Robert Pichotta

Bob remembers the great social life at Alemany, which included the parties, the games and the famous plays!

Susan Jean Pierszalowski

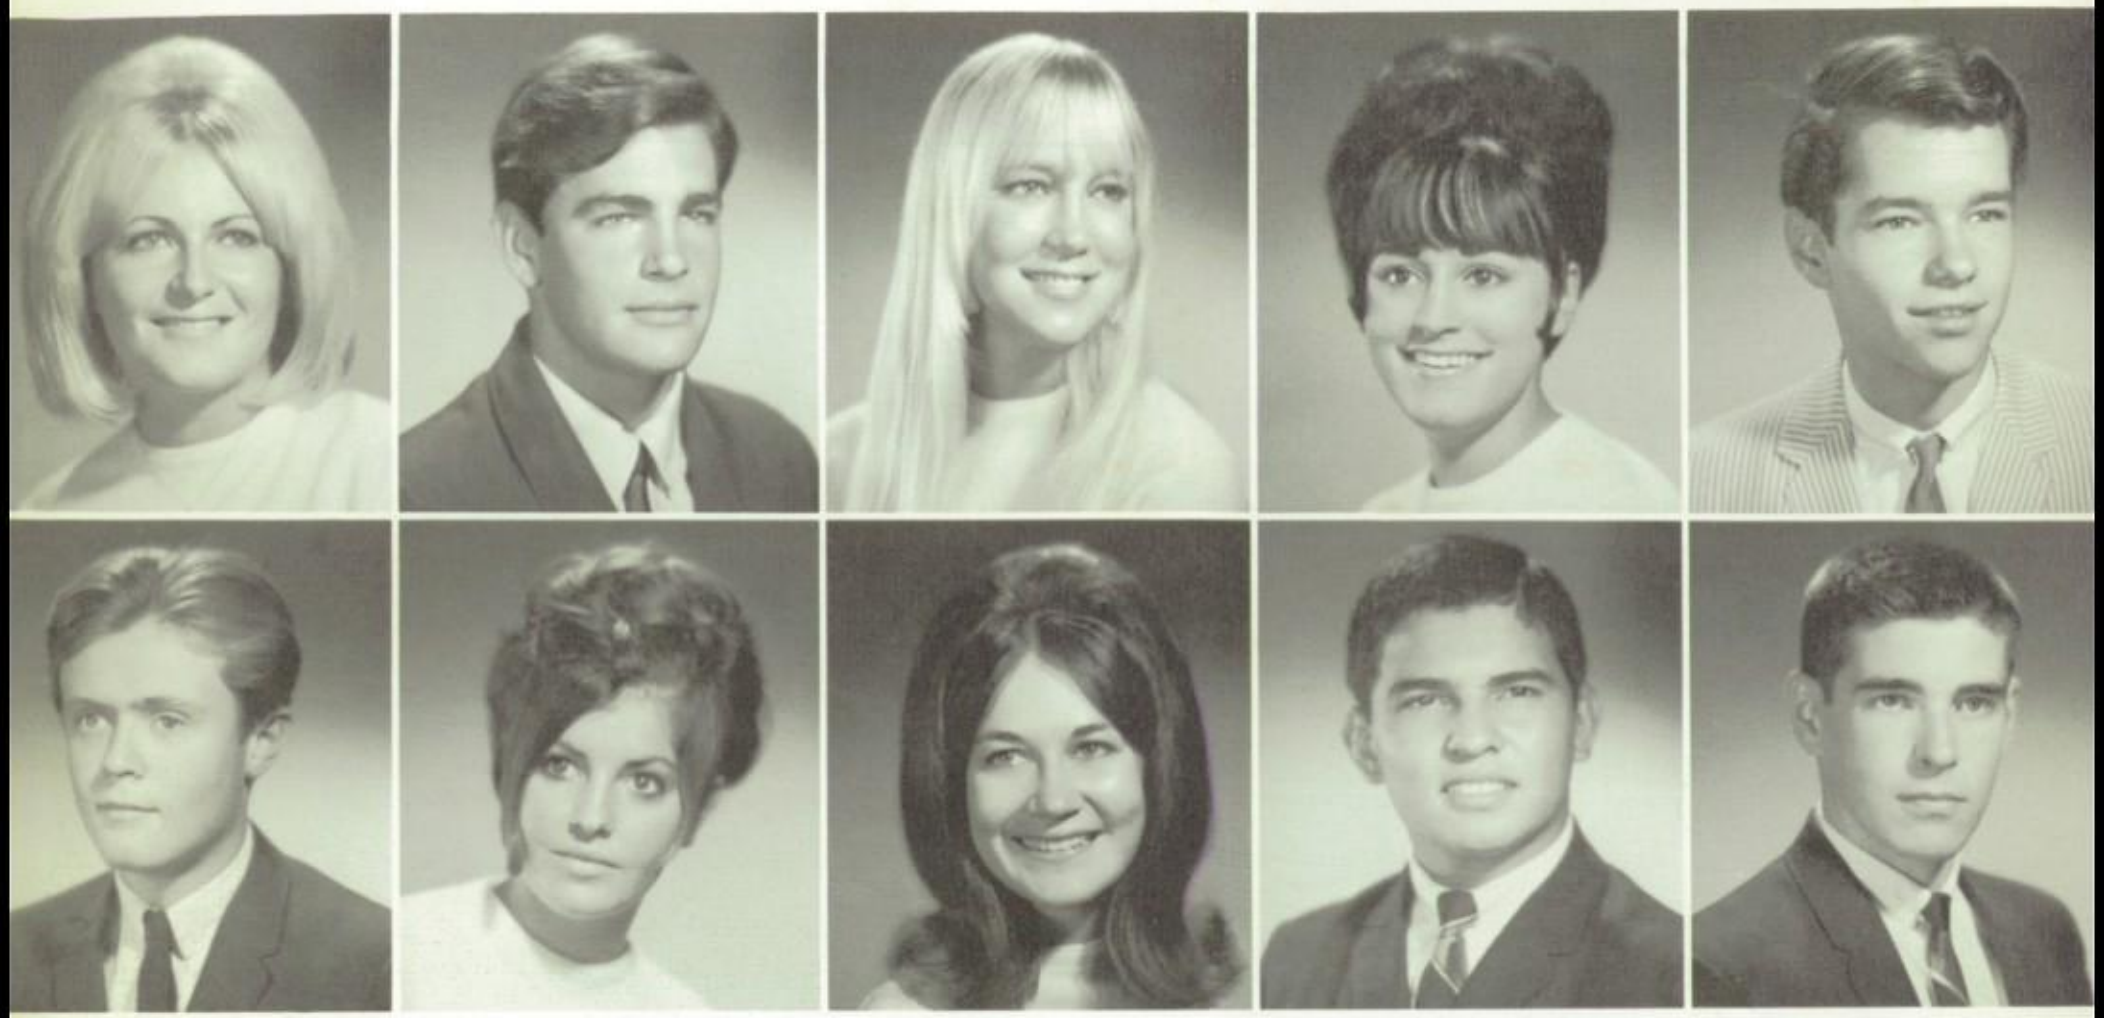
Loyal, hardworking Sue means it when she says "I love it more than anything." She made a friendly, funny, imaginative NSHS secretary, who can't forget Larry's, "You must . . .!"

Pamela Jo Pilone

Vivacious, spirited Pam has taken on the roles of Senior Class Veep, drum majorette and front end of the class mascot, while "South Pacific" made her the Best Supporting actress because she knows "How to Succeed" as a great vocalist.

Francis R. Pineau

Frank, at the Junior Prom and football games with Brenda, digs retreats and Father Chris and Mr. Graci's Algebra classes.



Harold George Pohl, Jr.

What "Light Bulb" would sleep on a chicken coop at Valyermo? Nobody except Harry of "How to Succeed", "Flower Drum Song" and "South Pacific" fame.

Joan Marie Price

A constant candy bar eater, Joan is "Obviously!" attractive and petite, along with being vitally concerned with "How many calories does it have?" Even at the Junior Prom, it's "Is there anything to eat here that's not fattening?"

Barbara Quintas

Babsie is sincerely funny in the wrong place at the wrong time with a "Well, you know." A magnetic personality combined with some wild ideas make this Senior quite unique.

Bernard Rapan

Funny, intelligent Bernie was active in many sports and organizations. An outstanding Lettermen secretary, he remembers the Junior Prom, the Soph retreat and those swingin' Lettermen parties.

Douglas J. Rex

The "Tree" is a concerned representative in Student Council, who played Varsity baseball and basketball (Rex, Rah!). His best memories are defeating LaSalle and taking part in '66 Homecoming activities as Lettermen's Club President.

for their souls dwell in the no tomorrow which you cannot not even in your dreams

Patricia Pizzimenti

Loyal Pat participated in Mr. McKnight's nutty History classes and flirted in ILAP, enjoying the choral group at the Music Center and the fabulous Junior Prom.

Stephen Michael Poff

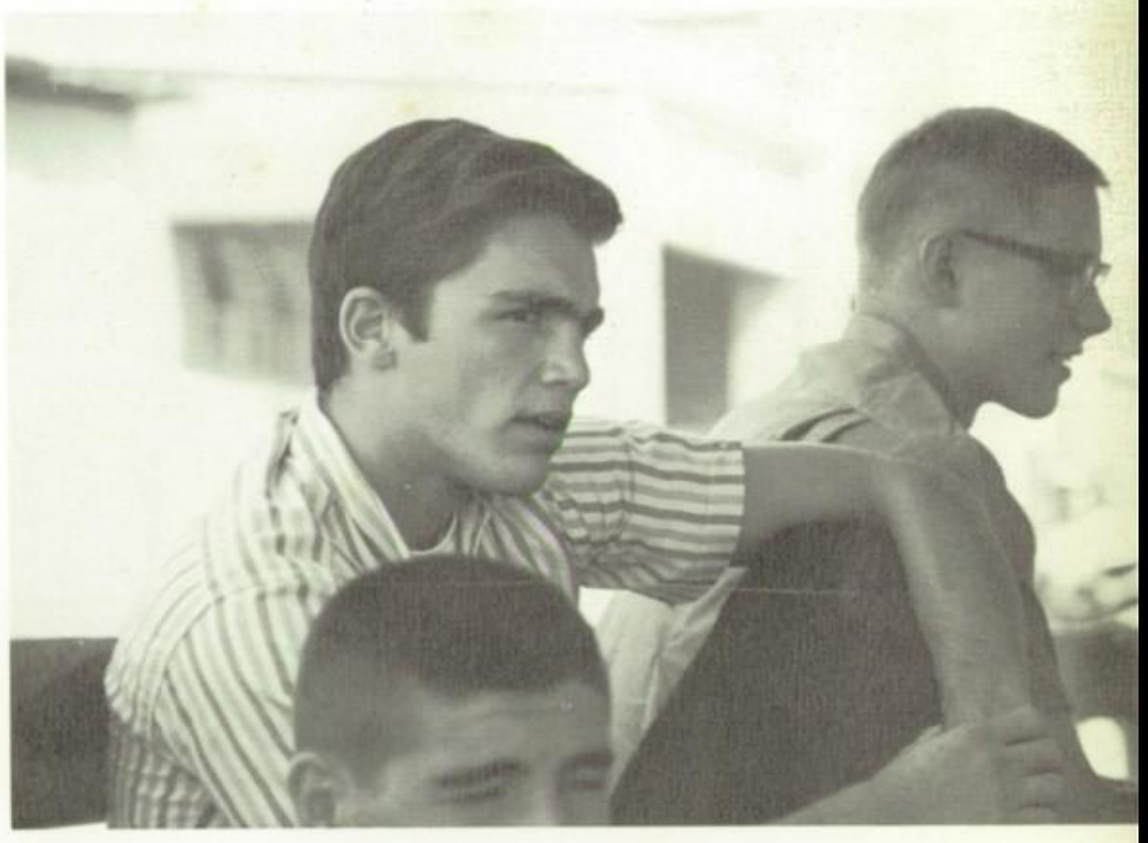
Known as "monkey", Steve was a successful Sophomore on the JV baseball team and as an NEDT awardee, going on to play on the BEE basketball team and attending the Junior Prom.

Rebecca Jeanne Reynolds

Who can forget Becky wearing bandages at Homecoming '66, or walking into the boys' locker room on the first day of gym? Different, responsible and active is Rebecca.

Ramona Robinson

With her hands and great sense of humor, Raye makes life enjoyable. Out front singing "Come on now" she's spirited enough to tackle even the hardest job, if the Peru Drive packing is any indication.



Use of Visit,

Joseph David Rocha

Dave enjoyed short subjects like Mr. Duhm's haircut and Father Nourie's religion class, meanwhile attending retreat and planning on studying oceanography.

Deanna Rondou

It's discouraging to have frizzy hair and to always be late because of your car, but to Deanna, the Junior Prom, the Christmas Dance and Van Nuys Bob's more than made up for it. She's not kidding either, when she says she's interested in a business career.

Leonard Lopez Rosales

Varsity and Bee Basketball were a part of Len's activities at Alemany, along with football games and dances—Most Inspirational Player.

Steven Rossman

ILAP'S Steve was active in Forensics and Confraternity, and the Science Club. In the chaos of chemistry classes, as a lab assistant, he helped out.

Cristina Elizabeth Santandreu Reisiger

Like most students at Alemany, Chris remembers her first day, and even more so, because she came all the way from Uruguay to experience it. In getting accustomed to a new way of life, our soft-spoken exchange student has learned to treasure weekend trips, and singing in Glee Club. We have learned to treasure her.

Vito Frank Scattaglia

"Scooter" is a quiet, outdoor sports fan who enjoys the beach and clearly remembers the Castaways, and the Junior Prom, cross country, and being an easygoing varsity baseball manager.

Janet Maria Schipper

"Jano" served as decorations chairman of "Mary's Day" '65 "making those crazy paper flowers" while acting as a "Cupid" with expressive hands. She makes sense with an "I'm sure! Are you kidding?"

Deborah Schmitz

Debbie specializes in shooting stale jokes at pep rallies and during drill team practice. However, she actively supports the team and pastes sticky stamps in books for spirit points, while enjoying a kooky car stereo.

friendliest

kimmy burke

sibby freeman

Dennis G. Rowlett

Denny has the makings of a true Thespian: he's played roles in "South Pacific", "Anne Frank", "Miracle", "How to Succeed", and "Ah, Wilderness", also never having been absent in his four years at Alemany.

Martha Valerie Ryan

"Rosemary" claims "you've gotta have heart!" to be chairman of the Santa Rosa project and head varsity cheerleader. It's still as much fun as "South Pacific" and "How to Succeed" were, though.

Craig Edward Samuelson

Interested in pursuing the field of electronics, Craig has belonged to the Electronics Club and remembers especially, the '65 School's Out Dance and Mr. Foxworth's English class.

William Sanchez

During his years at Alemany, Willie proved to be an interested and loyal student, as well as a good friend.

Kathryn Margaret Schultz

Serious, but nutty Kathy went along on the Oakland Band Trip with her "You've got to be kidding!" and somewhere along the line the car caught on fire. However, the Junior and Senior Proms were more memorable; enlivened considerably with her wild sense of humor.

Mary Ellen Seitz

A fun-loving Pep Club member and drill team marcher for four games saying "I'm hungry" is a sweet and adventurous girl named Mary.

Terence Shanahan

Terry, "The New Kid" in ILAP, is humorous and friendly, and known by the girls for his blue eyes. What he can't forget was being featured in "The Toreador" and attending his first homeroom session.

Glenn Vincent Shaw

Always helpful Glenn showed his athletic skill as a track and basketball team member (the same team that beat La Salle in Junior Year). Who could ever forget ILAP and the Senior retreat and the honor of being a Homecoming escort!

Richard Michael Simon

The question is whether "Peacock" enjoyed Alemany because it is a "clean school" or because he's an easy-going guy. Spanish, Glee Club, the Senior retreat, Bee basketball and Fr. Kearnan were the most memorable of all.

Carol Marine Smiley

Because she is artistic, Carol will always remember the Junior Prom decorations and doing scenery for "Theophile." She is also a sincere spirited Pep Club member, who sometimes complains, "You don't understand."

Stephen V. Smith

Steve enjoyed Alemany and all its activities, earning himself achievement awards in history. He liked Mr. Foxworth's class games, the dramas and musicals and especially wants to go to the desert.

Linda Maria Snyder

Pert Linni served as a senior class cheerleader and ILAP member, remembering the Junior Prom, December 20, 1965 and the spirit trophies. Her favorite question is "Where's Bernie?" and of course she won't forget the '66 football season.

Donald Arthur Stoulil

Talkative, open Don had as his special memories being on Varsity baseball, having "Ears" and that Friday night drive-in habit.

Thomas Alan Stradley

Tom might often be collecting bets from people, but he's still liked because he's a nice guy who cares about others. Those "others" doesn't apply to classes however, though he does have fun trying to find a way out of them.

Linda Strano

"Did I stutter?" often asks warm friendly Linda. A sincere and considerate person. She's a hard-worker on Pep Club, Service Club, "Pow-Wow" and the Prom Committee.

William A. Suflow

A "performer" on the water polo and swimming teams was Bill who "rides the wild surf" in between "Psychotic Reactions".

Kenneth R. Szada

While managing to stick on the honor roll for four years, Ken remembers his spiritually enlightening (?) retreat days. After working on Varsity track and cross-country teams, he'll never forget the time he got lost in the hills at the St. Francis meet.

you may strive to be like but seek not to make them

Linda Stackhouse

Feminine Linda with the long hair remembers her first day at Alemany. Since then she's spread her unique laugh and crazy sense of humor into her many activities which included "Guys and Dolls," drill team, homeroom officers and the '66 Senior Prom.

Mary Jean Stevenson

As a hardworking Band member, outgoing Mary showed the utmost patience in the boys office, faithfully saying "Good afternoon" at 8:00 a.m. and "uh, uh"—meaning yes, no, or maybe.

Joseph Louis Stewart

During his Junior and Senior years, Big Joe served on Varisty football, with the games against St. Francis, Crespi, and Amat being the big ones. Also a vital part of the Boys' Glee Club and Mark's wild parties, he is a nice active guy.

James William Stieber

Tall Jim has been active in football and track during high school. His best memories are the Backward Dance, retreat and the Crespi Game.

Stephen W. Stone

Being on Varsity football and basketball made "Fatty" a letterman, known as a goof-off, who remembers our greatest display of school and unity at the Crespi game '66.

Thomas James Terusa

"Thicky," a guitar-playing member of Glee Club and the "Pow-Wow's famous car club, is known as "Tommy the Terror." Could it be for his participation in Mr. Graci's chop sessions? The Junior Prom, track, and Varsity football are his memories.

Elizabeth Mary Theriault

Our always-on-the-go Student Body President, advice-giving "Abet," is a wild driver who eats ravioli! As a generous Soph she was Girl of the Year, and one year later we catch "Caspar" laughing at Girls' State between "Forget it"'s.

Berne Rhae Thomas

Wildly funny Berni was in charge of GAA and the Ping Pong Tournament. After painting Sr. Jeanne Anne's office and saying "What can I do for you, my love?," she finally got her beloved letter.

Peggy Anne Thomas

Though laughing Peggy is always saying "You're out of your tree!", She's an understanding, helpful Girl of the Month. She enjoyed the Junior Prom and TTR, but she's not so sure about the bomb scare.

George Edward Thompson

According to "Golfball"—renowned track member and groovy musician—"My life at Alemany has been one of excitement, kind of." He obviously must mean the Junior Prom, the Retreat and the athletic teams.

them like you

Thomas John Thorbus

Manager of almost everything Tom earned a place in the Lettermens' Club. His high school memories include the "KRLA Apes", games and retreats.

Kathleen Ann Tighe

Mischievious, Tiggy — the warm personality with the expressive eyes, can't forget Class Day's "Try to Remember" and most especially, the fire escape of the Beverly Hilton at the '65 Senior Prom.

Mary Ann Tondreau

"B.V.", "Polywog", or "Chubby Freckles" will each identify our NHS pres and former keeper of the piggy. As a devoted actress, she's livened up many a play and cast party as a laughing, witty people-lover.

Arthur Torres

"What a ball!" it all was at Alemany for "Tirole". He enjoyed just about everything, especially sports, retreats, camp outs and Disneyland.

William Patrick Uphoff

Bill, a member of the Lettermen's Club in track and cross-country, works on art crews for the musicals. He remembers Homecoming '66 and Mr. King's history class.

Yolanda C. Valencia

Lonnie brought spirit to the class as a Junior cheerleader and showed a tremendous sense of responsibility as NSHS veep and president. When in need call "Little Taco" and she'll be here.

Margaret Jean Vigil

"The Bottomless Pit", otherwise known as Marg, sang at the Music Center, froze at Friday night football games, participated in the Soph Christmas Program and laughed at dumb jokes—all making these four years a lot of fun.

Thomas Edward Voda

Soda somehow survived Mr. Smith's pummelings, and a weird last name, probably because he was a football player and enjoyed Father Dummer's geometry course and Soph retreat so much.

done most for class

dave bolduc

liz theriault

James L. Trace, Jr.

Who is Bob Tracki anyway? He's the same guy who was top chocolate seller in '64 and now the spirited head yell leader whose proudest moment was announcing Debbie Carr as Homecoming Queen.

Diane Marie Trifiro

Unmatchable Di went just plain nuts over the Senior Prom '65 while now she's serious about the job as hmrm. 20's veep—and don't forget—she's been very good-natured as the Tidings representative all four years.

Linda Truelsen

Laughing while she talks is a common trait of Linda's—along with starting great arguments in religion class and selling candy apples as a spirited Senior. Though she probably does, she often claims "I don't know!"

Judith Ellen Turner

Jude, a blonde with a great sense of humor and "Legs", holds traditional Thanksgiving spats with "Mare" and will always remember Homecoming '65 and jumping over the dog.

Pamela Helen Tyloch

Leader, swimmer, and smiler, Pam, will leave behind a Senior year filled with the joys of being Homecoming Princess, the work of being senior class president and the memories of "South Pacific" and the swim team.

Rose Walsh

Sincere "Rosie" shared enthusiasm at the '66 car wash, worked at meeting new people. She was known for her alias—"the girl behind the change window" and as a dependable worker in the business room.

Dorothy Jean Waracka

Dot, the generous, bubbly chairman of the Christmas Dance, is active in the Glee Club and room 18. She is often absent-minded in forgetting her car lights.

Anthony Wardzinski

In his four years at Alemany, easy-going Tony specialized in cross-country (I, II), JV track and manager, Drama I and getting into trouble on the Soph retreat.

Christine Therese Warren

"Little girlish" Chris shared in the fun with the class at the Junior car wash, and in ILAP and Pep Club. She kept forgetting certain skill books and always "guess what?" in homeroom.

David A. Watt

Sports are a big field of interest for likeable Dave. He has enjoyed Cee track, JV basketball and the KRLA Apes game.

most likely to succeed

liz theriault

sibby freeman

Lawrence Michael Weber

"Father" was an illustrious member of "Flower Drum Song" and ILAP. Though he can't help being a crazy half-witted surfer, Larry does talk well as a Jew and even likes Motown.

Maureen Wylot

Lively, spirited Moe had a part in the big success of "South Pacific". She's a coordinated songleader, but she has no legs. (She wore them out competing with the Rockettes!)

Michael Richard Weiland

Mike, better known as "The Plinking Eye," worked on the annual as a shutter-bug during his Senior year. He especially remembers the fun of "South Pacific" and Fr. Tona's Saturday morning Garden Club.

James Stephen Weld

"Wouldn't you like to know what went on?" at the football games in Las Vegas with Jack. "Malibu", a Letterman, also can't forget the soph retreat.

Sharon Wells

Vivacious, smiling Sheri has memories of "South Pacific" and ILAP—which included the Christmas program, crazy skits and falling down the bleacher steps.

Christine Ann Yates

Along with weird psychology classes and the Music Center, Chris attended Homecoming with "Someone." For some reason, she remembers the class outing at Placerita and that wild party she and Frank threw for the Kopp twins.

Lynda Sue Yeaman

What with blowing a trumpet in Mr. Scott's music class, finally shutting up in Mr. McKnights history class and squirting Linda Pascua in the face with a cow's eye, Lynda's main accomplishment was probably getting to understand football in her Senior year!

Michella Marie Zanrosso

Warm and laughing Shell was willing to work 'til midnight on the entrance to the Junior Prom and the annual. She shows her spirit by being an active member of Drill Team who says "Don" a lot and "I'm so gullible."

for life goes not backwards, nor tarries with yesterday.

adapted from kahlil gibran

Lynn Anne Werner

Ask "Buzz" for help, and you'll get ideas and enthusiasm from this Senior Girl of the Month. As a spirited and wonderful friend, she's left her mark at Placerita Canyon and on the annual as business editor.

Theresa Whittemore

Terry a Lettergirl President, enjoyed listening to Dodger games at Sue's cabin and rioting in Sr. Carmen Mary's classes, even though she couldn't give her Home Management Report.

Linda Williams

A truly spirited member of Pep Club, daring, determined Linda recalls getting her first complaint slip for not having a red marker, as well as holding A-Go-Go's in the car.

Stephen William Winchester

"Gun" (or "Leech") specialized in Bee football, tenth grade chalk fights and suspensions. He remembers ILAP, the Junior Prom and especially Senior year.

Brenda Winter

Happy-go-lucky Brent enjoyed sharing American ways with Monica de la Sotta, being an active member of the B.W.S. Club, and bursting out often with "Hiya, Snooks." The Junior Prom and Miss Burg's history classes also were special. (What's this about a horse?)

Mary Ann Zeihen

A poised "good-good", Mary was at the Junior Prom and the Mayor's Teenage Conference. Good-natured and feminine, she can recall picnics, Mick, and Homecoming '65—her first formal dance.

Anne Marie Zierhut

Friendly, humorous Anne is undoubtedly the most beautiful "Billy the Kid" that ever existed! She'll always remember the fun of socializing at parties, games and dances.

Yvonne Zicari

There's never a dull moment with the "Snake" around. Fun-loving and always concerned with others, she had a great time at the Backwards Dance and, of course, the Junior Prom.

Thomas Zoller

Mr. Gardina's English classes and Father Carrigan's religion classes make pleasant remembrances for cross-country man, Tom.

John Thomas Zuris

There always was something about ILAP and Frosh and Soph lunch hours that "Snake" enjoyed particularly. Ask him about surfing and "South Pacific."

At seven o'clock in the stainless stark morning
The work men come.
The wind sings with the smell
Of the gold shivering swords of sun rising.
Swifting through the dissolving silence
The men and their trucks and their drills
Are aware and proud of being
A money-changing brass band
Disturbing the temple.
Sawfully the humming machines swarmonize
With the pulse-pound of hammers, beneath
The seventy-fold masculine cacophony of labor
And ordering it all, the telegraphic yells of men.
The men, in jeans washed to skyness
And skin burned to earth,
walk the beam-bridges, unself-cautious as cats.
With nails in their teeth and cement in their nails
They dig the holes, plant the roots
And coax the woody skeltons up
Till the incredibly blue Alemany sky is crammed
With bricks growing like pale fire
And frames and triangles measured with perfection.

This very day the sure sweaty hands of the work men
Are constructing ten thousand educations.
The creating, the becoming, is the point
see now. It will not come again.
Once the goal is caught and caged
The exhilaration of striving slips away.

Only, O God, that I might grasp and keep Every priceless ounce
Of this evanescent growing time.

OUR EXCHANGE STUDENTS

fernando salgado, a new face in the second semester, came also from montevideo in uruguay. his humor, love of fun and interest in people earned him many friends within a short time. always ready to accept others, he truly became a part of us. as for the future, fernando will study engineering or medicine in montevideo. and we hope that he will remember us as we shall remember him for he tore down the language barrier and replaced it with communication.

the time to say "hello" to something that was once a part of you, and the time to be answered back loud and full by the cheers at the Football Game, by the smiles of the Queen, by the faces at the Alumni Reception, by the music at the Dance and by a million other things that live now in what was once your future.
Homecoming is that weekend of the year that gives now and once-upon-a-time Alemanians a chance to stop and salute their Alma Mater, the living institution that beats and pulses with their lives.
When the weekend is over-when the lights are out and the crepe paper down, you turn around and walk on into what is happening now, leaving the past behind once again... until next year.」

ALEMANY BASKETBALL—1966-1967

by Rick Hiscocks

On the season, Alemany High School's Indians completed the most successful year in this school's history as they finished with an 18-7 record.

The highlight of the season came in Alemany's home gym as the Indians defeated Pater Noster by a 67-60 total, and a capacity crowd flooded the victorious cagers with good humor and high spirits.

The Indians this year had the good fortune of having Doug Rex on their side. This 6'8" colossus managed to maintain a 25.5 average throughout the season, and was voted the league's MVP by a unanimous vote of all the coaches in the Santa Fe loop.

The other starters on the Indian team were senior forwards Steve Napoli, who was second in scoring only to Rex, and Vin Fox, who played brilliantly after being out the first part of the season with a severe illness.

The two guards on the '66-'67 squad were senior Steve Stone, who established himself early in the season as the Indians' playmaker, and guard John Livingston who should "come into his own as a basketball player," in the words of Coach Cole.

Steve Napoli was an All-League choice along with Doug Rex, and John Livingston received Honorable Mention as he missed the All-League team by just one vote.

Coach Ed Cole should long be remembered as the man who came to Alemany and made the Indians a top-contender in his first year as coach. Born in Turtle Creek, Pennsylvania, he started at Crieghton University, and played a year of basketball with the New York Knickerbockers, as their third draft choice.

The truly significant contribution made by the Cagers of '66-'67 will long be remembered at Alemany, and rightly so as they defeated such notable adversaries as the Mt. Carmel Crusaders, and gave tough competition to South Pasadena, who was the best team in Southern California this year. Alemany's cage team earned the significant honor of being "the only team" in the AA CIF that the mighty Tigers "feared."

In league competition the Indians lost a mere two games, and finished a full game ahead of an up-and-down St. Francis quintet. The Indians final league mark was 12 victories and 2 defeats.

In CIF playoff competition the Indians did well as they met with Burroughs of Ridgecrest and defeated them by a 65-53 score, and were ranked fourth in their division by the Coaches Poll.

All good things must come to an end, however, and the Indians went down in defeat at the hands of Corona Del Mar's Sea Kings, thus ending what Coach Ralph Ahn called, "the best team in Alemany's history."

Stephen M. Roberts
(1943 - 1966)

"I'm a long-distance runner, crossing the country on all my own..."

This quote speaks of Steve Roberts as he was, both literally and figuratively.
As many Alemaniahs can testify after seeing him run day after day at all hours, his love was long-distance or marathon running. This devotion, second in line only to his wife, was apparent not only in his ten-mile-a-day practice, but in his weekly attendance at meets, his cross-country coaching and his leadership of the Matador Athletic Club at Valley State. Mr. Roberts was a long-distance runner in another sense - he set for himself a goal that while attainable, was a long hard road ahead. This goal was the complete development of his own discipline in body and mind. Steve Roberts lived a quiet, simple life that was well-constructed and kept firm by his strong will that was manifest in both his teaching and athletic training. He believed too to crossing "on all my own" for he used what he had and tried to make it the best he could. He could face a challenge and persevere until it was conquered.
When Steve Roberts died, a man died and we at Alemany are the less for it.

COME ON

and fight for alemany high come on and help us raise our banners high... cause indians never let their foes get by we're gonna show them their defeat, we can't be beat!!! we're gonna fight and give it all we've got, we're gonna show 'em that we're really not...

victory will be our only cry, cause we're from alemany high!!!!

This year under the leadership of Berne Thomas, the Alemany Girls' Athletic Association has played an active role in involving the girls' student body in varied activities.
In the A-Club division, members played on volleyball, basketball and softball teams. The volleyball schedule opened the sports season and though the team had a losing record, we made up for it by placing second to St. Anthony's in St. Mary's tournament. Undefeated in league play for the third year in a row, the basketball team went to City play-offs. The cheering section, otherwise known as the Pep Club kept that spirit alive by supporting all home and away games, both of boys and girls.
The Lettergirl Club was active too, going on outings, keeping order at assemblies and holding great initiations.
While each part of the GAA worked hard on its own particular projects, the whole structure moved together on major undertakings. First there was Homecoming '66, sponsored jointly with the Varsity Lettermen. Next was the 7th annual Basketball Tournament in March, followed by the annual GAA Field Day. To close the year off came the Sports Banquet with the awards and recognitions for outstanding members.

Linda
I'm sure you do hope you have a great summer. Boy, with personality, looks and figure like yours you'll have no problem. Last this summer, you make J.V. next year and will be a great time next year.

Love always,
Pat (Bear)

Linda for giving me all this room to say thanks for quiving me all this room to write in. If I'd said all I have to say about your annual $6.00 I would take up this whole me. So I'm taking you probably would've caused to write I'll write you and knew you hadn't the choice of all the places the Gettesburg address while I'm writing you this year and I hope for you too. I hope that pleasure for me and I hope for you that I see ya next year, I know it'll be a total "Blast" RIGHT? RIGHT. I will be too, save a mice come keepin in touch during the summer

Love ya muck

P.S. To A Ditchew J.V. Cheerleader
To Be!

Dear Linda,

I could neveeever, even if I tried say all I'd like to but I'll give it a try. You and I have had so much fun this year and I hope it will be the same in the comingones Try and remember the foot ball games + the hot chocalate (as if you could forget), remember the fun we had at the teenage fair -- the rides, the food, and the wet pants!! --- remember the fun we had inbetween classes -- remember all the cokes I drank of yours and the ones you drank of mine! --- remember everything we did this year that made it so much fun and never forget - 'cause memories can be treasured for ever.

Luv ya.

Jacci

Lynda,

Woops, spelled your name wrong again! Maybe cuz that's a more unique way of spelling "beautiful" and you're a very unique and darling girl. This sounds sorta mushy but you know, I've really treasured the good times we've had togethe including the many times when we just giggled and giggled and giggled... Remember the Teen Fair, the Supremis Concert and a million other things. Also, and this is very important, —

Dear Linda, 5/27/67

My buddy, my pal, my friend; this is you to me. I know sometimes I get mad at you sometimes but that's just cuz I care about you. You are one of my closest friends. My closest friends I consider - You, Linnie, Gloria, Sandy, & Peggy. But you I like especially because you're friendly nice & I know you like me. Besides I get mad real fast & I'm glad you put up with me. We've had a really good time this year together. Linda, promise me that we'll always stay close. It's really neat the way you're interested in Dan & John — cuz I sorta have connections with both & I wanna be rite there when one of them gets you. I love Brian. This is the neatest thing that ever happened to me. And you were there to help me get him. Just think if we hadn't gone to Alemany we wouldn't know each other — & that would have left a gap in my life. Linda, you are the sweetest girl I know.. Don't change. Remember me always.

thanks for not liking Mike, cuz I would never have had a chance otherwise. I really hope (and I'm sure we will) that we always remain best friends, even though we get grouchy after staying up til 3 yakking. Luv ya Mucho, Glo

Luv ya,
Vicki

Dear Linda -

How can I tell you how much fun we've had this year. I am so glad we become best of friends. You, Vicki & Glo have been my closest friends a short time. I know that it will stay way for a long, long time. We've had the best times & just think of all the others we will have in yrs to come. your friendship has meant a lot to me. your personality is one of the best and you keep me laughing!!

don't be sad about Bill, Linda. I know you can't forget him. The only think I can say is never stop hopin' & tryin. Be patient. I believe this more than ever now cuz ya know what happened today? Carlos called Diane!! & if that happened, anything can. I know he really liked you. But now or other thing, try not to think about him too much, once you start likin' another guy ya might forget. Oh Lin, why does life have to be like this?

Hope I see ya alot this summer I know we will always stay Best - Best friends Linda. I cant picture us w/o each other. Always remember me and all our good times.

Love
Ronnie

AMERICAN YEARBOOK COMPANY

Linda,

I'm so glad we've became such friends this year. I'll never forget your "hi Janice"'s in the beginning of the year. You're so friendly to everyone. And I'm so happy you made J.V.!!! Really, you'll be the best, I know. Maybe we'll see each other this summer but if not I'll see you next year when you're a big Sophomore!! And maybe my hair just might catch up with your. Good luck always. Never, never change and never forget Spanish I and me and everyone else too!!

Love ya,
Janice

Linda,

Isn't this party a riot? This year has been so much fun that I'm gonna miss you guys so much next year at Monroe. Good luck with (cheer) cheerleading,

Patty Leffler

Linda,

Yawie been a real good friend. Remember our old English Class - it's easy!! Congratulations for getting J.V. cheerleader — you deserved it

Love ya,
Terri

Linda,

Best of luck as J.V. cheerleader. I hope you have a great sophomore year. Stay as sweet as you are and have a groovy summer.

Love + Luck,
